

I Decree That:

1. I am truly blessed with a fruitful life.
 2. I am like a tree that's firmly planted by streams of living water with green, healthy leaves producing fruit in due season.

I Decree That:

3. I am not anxious when there is lack all around me and when times seem difficult, because I am a fruitful vine, always producing and bearing good fruit.

I Decree That:

4. I flourish like the palm tree.
 5. I continue to grow strong and upright in my life and faith.

I Decree That:

6. I will still yield fruit in old age, and I will be full of abundance, energy, and vitality because the fruit of righteousness is a tree of life.

I Decree That:

7. I abide in Christ, and therefore I manifest the fruit of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

I Decree That:

8. The fruit I bear in my life is better than gold and the choicest silver.

I Decree That:

9. The fruit of Christ's light in me consists of goodness, righteousness, and truth. I am fully satisfied with good by the fruit of my words, and the deeds of my hands return to me.

I Decree That:

10. I am destined to bear good fruit because of God's faithful love for me.
