

Leaving Egypt

The Destructiveness of Personal Comfort | Numbers 14:34-45
Pastor Paul Bauman

Question 1 – What has changed since they told God no?

- ❖ What they feared most. (vs. 39)

Question 2 – What is the same since they told God no?

- ❖ They are still worshipping the idol of personal comfort. (vs. 40-44)
- There is no evidence of repentance.

Sin is running from God to get control of our lives. Repentance is turning back to God and yielding control to Him.
 - They were not convinced of their inability to do what only God was able to do.
 - They were still the object of their own trust.

Final Thoughts

- God will always stiff arm us when we operate from pride, even if we are doing “godly things.”
- We have control over what we choose to magnify.
- Are there any commands of Jesus that I am disobeying for the sake of my personal comfort?
