Two Compelling Reasons

1. The comfort that is given by God in our weakness and suffering.
 - a) God's comfort identifies with the suffering of another.
 - b) God's comfort brings encouragement and refreshment.
2. Weakness and suffering have a God ordained purpose in our lives.
 - a) We are comforted so that we can comfort others with the comfort God shows to us.
 - b) God's strength is only encountered in our weakness.

A Practical Challenge

- ❖ Ask for prayer as you experience weakness and suffering.

"In prayer, human impotence (or helplessness) casts itself at the feet of divine omnipotence." Dr. Philip Hughes
