Finding Time | Luke 10:38-42
Pastor Paul Bauman

Three Observations

1. Martha's spirit and attitude start out in a good place but end up being critical and controlling.
2. Mary chose to spend time listening to Jesus while Martha chose to serve Jesus.
3. In her service for Jesus, Martha got distracted from Jesus.

Distracted – "to be dragged away"

- ❖ Self-pity
- ❖ Resentment

Jesus Responds

1. Jesus puts the focus on Martha's heart, not what she was doing or saying.

KEY: Our heart is ultimately determining how we use our time.

2. Jesus isn't asking for more from Martha. He is offering Himself to her.

Final Thoughts

- Stewardship of our time begins with an awareness of our heart. (Ps. 139:23-24)
- Stewardship of our time requires us to believe that Jesus loves us and longs to spend time with us. (Rev. 3:20)
