STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What did you notice from Isaiah's prophecy, that Jesus fulfilled about 800 years later, that you hadn't thought of before? How does Isaiah 52:3 inform us on our salvation? How are you the fulfillment of Isaiah 52:7?
2. Christ humiliated himself on purpose for others. How have you willingly humiliated yourself for God or others? What could that look like for you?
3. Moses, Joshua, David, and Elijah were all "types" of Christ. In other words, figures that their lives and actions pointed toward or had attributes like the coming Messiah, Jesus. Jesus was a fulfilling and even better version of the types. How was each of the afore mentioned like Christ and how did each fall short?
4. How about you? How are you like Jesus and how have you fallen short?
5. Name the different promises that Jesus fulfilled and/or things he made possible for us.
6. P. 147-149 speak of three images describing Jesus the Christ saving actions; rescue, redemption, and new birth. Which one speaks to you the most? Why?

LIFE APPLICATION

Spend some time in personal journaling. Write down each of your "roles" or vocations in life: e.g. parent, spouse, child, church member, employee, friend, neighbor, etc. For each role answer the following:

- How am I like, or doing the work of, Christ in this role?
- Where am I falling short?
- What is one thing I can do to either be more humble or more of a rescuer/redeemer in this role?
