5-Day Bible Reading Plan and Devotional Guide

Based on the Series: Back to Basics

Day 1: The Foundation of Truth

Reading: Psalm 119:105-112 — A passage declaring that God's Word is a lamp and a light, a reliable guide for every step of the journey.

Devotional: Before anything else can be built, a foundation must be laid. This series begins with a simple but urgent question: what do you believe, and why? God has not left us without direction. His Word stands as the most reliable source of truth available to us. In a culture that constantly shifts its definition of right and wrong, the believer has an anchor. Spend time today asking God to deepen your confidence in Scripture. Let truth be the filter through which every decision, every doubt, and every question passes.

Day 2: The Depth of Grace

Reading: Ephesians 2:4-9 — Paul describes how God, rich in mercy and motivated by great love, made a way for sinners to be saved through faith, not through personal effort or achievement.

Devotional: Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God's answer to our helplessness. The sermon reminded us that God looked at broken, wandering humanity and chose to make a way. Not because we deserved it, but because of who He is. Grace is the hinge on which everything else swings. Without it, there is no salvation, no sanctification, no hope. Today, sit quietly before God and let the reality of His grace settle into your heart. You did not earn it. You cannot lose it by failing. Receive it fully and let gratitude follow.

Day 3: Declared Not Guilty

Reading: Romans 5:1-2 — Paul explains that those who have been justified through faith now stand in a place of peace with God and have access to His grace.

Devotional: Justification is not a feeling. It is a verdict. The moment a person places genuine faith in Jesus Christ, God the Judge stands and declares that person innocent. Not because of anything they have done, but because of everything Jesus has done. This is not a transaction you earn or maintain through effort. It is a legal declaration made by the highest authority in the universe. If you have surrendered to Christ, you are not guilty. Today, resist the temptation to carry shame that has already been removed. Walk in the freedom of a verdict that cannot be overturned.

Day 4: The Lifelong Journey of Sanctification

Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:1-7 — Paul urges believers to walk in a manner that pleases God, explaining that sanctification, being set apart from sin, is the will of God for every Christian.

Devotional: Salvation is instantaneous. Sanctification is a journey. Once you have been declared righteous, the daily work of becoming more like Christ begins. This is not about earning your salvation. It is about living out what you already possess. The sermon put it plainly: stop trying in your own strength and start trusting in God's power. Two steps forward and one step back is still progress. Today, identify one area where you have been striving in your own effort. Surrender that specific struggle to God and ask the Holy Spirit to do what only He can do in you.

Day 5: Made for More

Reading: John 10:10 — Jesus declares that He came not merely so that people could exist, but so that they could experience life that is full and overflowing.

Devotional: The sermon opened with a question many people carry quietly in their hearts: is this all there is? The answer Scripture gives is a resounding no. You were not made to simply survive the week. You were called out of the world, set apart, and placed on a journey toward something far greater than routine existence. God is your biggest fan. He wants you to abound more and more. Today, ask yourself honestly whether you are walking in the abundant life Jesus promised or merely going through the motions. Then ask God to reignite in you a hunger for everything He has for you.
