

Philippians Series

He will meet all my needs

The fear of not having enough leads to poor decisions and faulty ways of thinking.

Phil 4:14 Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles. 15 Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; 16 for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid again and again when I was in need. 17 Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account. 18 I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God.

When I give to someone out of obedience to God, I am giving to God.

Don't separate God meeting my needs from helping meet others' needs.

God's Promise:

Phil. 4:19 And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

Blessings don't come from my ability, but from His faithfulness.

God may not give me all of my wants, but He will meet all my needs.

If I believe God will supply all my needs, I will be radically generous for the sake of the Gospel instead of selfishly stingy.
