

Family Farm

Pt. 4

Gal. 6:7 "Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.
⁸The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. ⁹Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."

Question: How do I not reproduce bad seeds that were planted in me? How do I avoid passing negative things down to the next generation?

1. Honestly admit the weaknesses in my family background.
2. Don't focus on what I won't be; focus on what I will be.

Principle: I move towards what I focus on.

3. Connect to a positive role model.
4. Ask for help.
5. Offer accountability.
6. Ask God for supernatural help and ask others to pray with me.

Question: Can I plant something in my family that I don't have?

I teach what I know. I reproduce what I am.

Question: How do I deal with the regrets of planting the wrong things?

1. Repent - ask for forgiveness from God.
2. Ask my family for forgiveness.
3. Forgive myself.
4. Be realistic.
5. Instead of living in the past, start planting good seeds now!

Gal. 6:7 "Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.
⁸The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. ⁹Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."

I can change my harvest by changing the seed I plant!
