

Holy Week

Maundy Thursday

Maundy Thursday is the day that Christians commemorate the gathering of Jesus and his disciples for the Last Supper. Maundy comes from the Latin word mandatum, meaning commandment, in reference to Jesus' teachings about a new commandment.

"I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another"
(John 13:34-35, NRSV).

HYMN

“As The Deer”

¹ As the deer panteth for the water, so my soul longeth after Thee. You alone are my heart’s desire, and I long to worship Thee.

You alone are my strength, my shield; to You alone may my spirit yield. You alone are my heart’s desire, and I long to worship Thee.

² You’re my friend and You are my brother, even though You are a King. I love You more than any other, so much more than anything.

³ I want You more than gold or silver, only You can satisfy. You alone are the real joy giver, and the apple of my eye.

HYMN

“Spirit of the Living God”
(sung twice)

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on us. Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on us. Feed us, quench us, bless us, guide us. Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on us.

HYMN FWS 2223 "They'll Know We Are Christians By Our Love"

¹ We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord, we are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord, and we pray that all unity may one day be restored:

And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love; yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

² We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand, we will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand, and together we'll spread the news that God is in our land:

³ We will work with each other, we will work side by side, we will work with each other, we will work side by side, and we'll guard human dignity and save human pride:

⁴ All praise to the Father, from whom all things come, and all praise to Christ Jesus, God's only Son, and all praise to the Spirit, who makes us one:
