Romans 11:25–29

“For I do not want you, brothers and sisters, to be uninformed of this mystery—so that you will not be wise in your own estimation—that a partial hardening has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in; and so all Israel will be saved; just as it is written: “THE DELIVERER WILL COME FROM ZION, HE WILL REMOVE UNGODLINESS FROM JACOB.” “THIS IS MY COVENANT

WITH THEM, WHEN I TAKE AWAY THEIR SINS.” In relation to the gospel they are enemies on your account, but in relation to God’s choice they are beloved on account of the fathers; for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.” (NASB 2020)

Paul “points out that there were limitations to Israel’s hardening, in that Israel was hardened only in part and only temporarily in verse 25. There was a partial hardening, but never a total hardening...The fact that there are Jewish believers coming to saving faith proves that the hardening was partial and not total. Israel was hardened only for a temporary period of time.

They were hardened in part until the fullness of the Gentiles [has] come in. The Greek word rendered as “fullness” means a full number or a complete number or a set number. In other words, God has a set number of Gentiles that He has destined to come into the place of blessing of the olive tree (in verses 16–24). (Fruchtebaum 2018)

And now the nation is back in the land. In unbelief per Ezekiel 20:33-38. “This regathering in unbelief occurs after wrath has been poured out on the people. It is no accident that out of the fires of the Nazi Holocaust the state of Israel was born.

Once this gathering has taken place, God will enter into judgment with His people, namely in the tribulation and judgments. And by means of these judgments, the rebels will be purged out. Then there will be a whole new nation, a regenerate nation, that will be able to enter the messianic land of Israel under King Messiah.” (Fruchtebaum 2018)

The fig tree has budded in the midst of the increase in frequency and severity of the signs Jesus pointed out in Matthew 24 as a precursor to His second coming. I believe we are the terminal generation. We are now watching the war of Revelation 12 against God’s people in real time. The increase in attacks on God’s people, the Jews has increased dramatically in the past year. This is Satanic and Satan’s present war against the Jewish people is to thwart the second coming (Revelation 12:12-14) The annual interim report on global antisemitism trends published by the Israeli Ministry of Diaspora Affairs and Combating Antisemitism is alarming.

“According to the report, 815 serious antisemitic incidents were documented globally in 2025, in which 21 Jewish people were murdered. At the same time, authorities identified around 124 million antisemitic posts on the platform X as well as more than 4,000 anti-Israel demonstrations, some of which escalated into direct incitement against Jews.

The majority of incidents occurred in Western countries, including the United States, United Kingdom, France, Australia, and Canada. (Israeli Ministry of Diaspora Affairs and Combating Antisemitism 2026)

A report by the World Zionist Organization’s Department for Combating Antisemitism also warns of an alarming deterioration in global developments. Released ahead of International Holocaust Remembrance Day, the report states that 2025 was characterized by a “normalization of hatred.” Antisemitism has become a permanent background noise no longer tied to individual events or media “triggers.”

Key findings of the report:

A clear increase in incidents: In the first eight months of 2025, 4,574 antisemitic incidents were recorded worldwide – a rise of around 10.2 percent compared to the same period last year. On average, about 22 incidents were documented per day.

Radicalization of language: While politically motivated anti-Israel discourse slightly declined, extreme antisemitic statements – including openly Nazi slogans – rose by 75 to 100 percent.

Digital sphere and algorithms: Modern antisemitism increasingly appears as a permanent stream, sometimes supported by state actors. Interaction-oriented algorithms on social networks amplify polarizing and extreme content, creating sealed “hate echo chambers.”

Impact on Jewish communities: Open antisemitism is leading to a profound erosion of the sense of security and Jewish identity. Data from the United States show that 55 percent of Jews experienced at least one antisemitic incident in the past year. (Israel Today Staff 2026)

Yes, this explosion of Satanically inspired hatred is indeed a sign of where we are on the prophetic clock. Satan was unable to stop Jesus until the crucifixion, and he did not achieve what he thought he would with the crucifixion. Jesus walked out of the grave.

1 Corinthians 2:6–8

“Yet we do speak wisdom among those who are mature; a wisdom, however, not of this age nor of the rulers of this age, who are passing away; but we speak God’s wisdom in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God predestined before the ages to our glory; the wisdom which none of the rulers of this age has understood; for if they had understood it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory;” (NASB 2020)

Even though Satan and his minions are spiritual beings, they are not all knowing and they cannot be in all places at once. Only God can do that and only God knows everything. When Jesus walked out of the grave, it was not expected by the unseen fallen ones. God’s total plan was explained to two men for the first time the evening after the resurrection took place on the road to Emmaus. “If the plan of God for the messiah’s mission had been clear, the powers of darkness would never have killed Jesus—they would have known that his death and resurrection were the key to reclaiming the nations forever.” (Heiser 2025, 298)

That level of communication misdirection is common on the battlefield. The entire plan may never be sent as a unity, but only as disconnected bits. Once it is all put together, then you have the whole story and not everyone has a need to know the whole story.

The complete mission of Messiah was sent as disconnected bits and pieces which Jesus finally explained post resurrection.

Luke 24:27

“Then beginning with Moses and with all the Prophets, He explained to them the things written about Himself in all the Scriptures.” (NASB 2020)

And there was one more thing that took place as a result of the resurrection. The enemy was disarmed, made powerless.

What Jesus did on the cross was for all of mankind, but not for any of the fallen supernatural rules and authorities. Instead, He puts them to open shame with an offer of salvation and freedom for those who Satan had previously enslaved, all of mankind.

An offer of salvation to angels is not in view. Instead, the aberration of their dominion over the affairs of men is corrected. Their authority is now illegitimate. Of course, they will not willingly surrender power, and so that must be—and will be—taken from them. Humans still estranged from God are thus deceived and enslaved by powers unauthorized by the true king. That is the point of the Great Commission—setting captives free. (Heiser, Angels: What the Bible Really Says about God’s Heavenly Host 2018, 151-152)

Satan, knowing his Bible, knows that with Israel back in the land, his time is growing short. All he has left is his hatred for God and all that belongs to God.

Colossians 2:13–15

“And when you were dead in your wrongdoings and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made you alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our wrongdoings, having canceled the certificate of debt consisting of decrees against us, which was hostile to us; and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. When He had disarmed the rulers and authorities, He made a public display of them, having triumphed over them through Him.” (NASB 2020)

While not destroyed, the supernatural rulers and authorities have been displaced or removed from the authority they held over the gentiles. Who was it that removed this authority? The Most High himself, on the basis of the death and resurrection of Christ... God through Christ “put aside” the old order of the rulers and authorities; he “stripped” them of their authority.

The point of Paul’s declaration is that the ruling authority of the gods allotted to the nations (Deut 32:8; cp. Deut 4:19–20; 17:3; 29:23–26) was declared illegitimate and null by the work of Christ. In the past, prior to Christ, the Most High had allotted the nations to the sons of God. Their authority was legitimate because they had been appointed by the true God. They were supposed to be in their positions. Psalm 82 tells us that those gods, “sons of the Most High” (Ps 82:6), rebelled and became corrupt. Instead of ruling their people according to the sort of justice God desired, they enslaved them, ultimately becoming the objects of their worship and seducing Yahweh’s own people into idolatry. Now, because of the cross, their rule has no legitimacy. (Heiser, Demons: What the Bible Really Says about the Powers of Darkness 2020, 229)

Satan and his followers failed and did so miserably which is why they continue to engage with the church as we take those who are literally at the gates of hell away by telling them of the offer of salvation which is through Jesus Christ and when one turns to Christ, that is one more that Satan has lost.

Until the last member of the church is saved, Satan is doing all he can to prevent Israel from being in existence thus antisemitism. And once the church is gone in the pre-tribulation rapture of the church, Satan will know his days are now, literally, numbered.

Satan’s unappeasable anger against Israel explains the unrelenting anti-semitism through the ages. Once the Jewish diaspora began in AD 70, the devil’s goal was to prevent the Jewish people from surviving and regathering as a nation again. He knew that the rebirth of Israel would make it possible for the prophecies of the end times to be fulfilled—including Christ’s return. Yet God controls history, and nothing can prevent the fulfillment of His promises. Israel’s rebirth took place in 1948—on the heels of the Holocaust, during which Satan made his fiercest attempt ever to obliterate the Jewish people. (Miller 2022, 226)

Knowing this, why are there not more of His people, the Jews, being saved? Again, Paul addresses that. Romans 11:25–29 “For I do not want you, brothers and sisters, to be uninformed of this mystery—so that you will not be wise in your own estimation—that a partial hardening has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in; and so all Israel will be saved; just as it is written: “THE DELIVERER WILL COME FROM ZION, HE WILL REMOVE UNGODLINESS FROM JACOB.” “THIS IS MY COVENANT WITH THEM, WHEN I TAKE AWAY THEIR SINS.” In relation to the gospel they are enemies on your account, but in relation to God’s choice they are beloved on account of the fathers; for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.” (NASB 2020)

Once we get to Revelation 4, the church is gone, and it is all about Israel and God dealing with His people. The current unbelief of most of His people is to be addressed. The current unbelief has given God a chance to reveal His mercy not on the deserving but on the undeserving. Once the Gentiles were disobedient but now have obtained mercy. And now Israel is in disobedience, and so the Jews have also been put on the level where they are eligible for mercy, for God has shut up all that He might have mercy on all, and that is the summary of the gospel. (Fruchtehbaum 2018)

We know the rapture is near because Israel is in the land in unbelief just as Ezekiel said would be the case. All of the signs Jesus spoke of are now beginning to not only coverage but increase in frequency and severity.

We are also seeing other prophecies being fulfilled as well, ones which also require for there to be an Israel. And the amazing thing we are seeing right now, is the international landscape being set up for a war that will take place in the near future where God will show up on behalf of His people and will do so in a way no one on the planet will be able to deny.

There are indeed plans for the Temple to be rebuilt, the architectural renderings are completed. (3rd Temple 2026)

For the Temple to be built, Israel must exist as it does today. And internally, they are busy preparing. The Bible teaches this Temple will indeed be rebuilt, the sacrificial system reestablished (Daniel 9:27, Revelation 11:1-2, Matthew 24:15) and it will be in Jerusalem (Daniel 9:24).

An emerging effort to revive the Aaronite priests and Levitical assistants of ancient Israel has grown into a nearly 100-strong professional community of Kohanim and Levites in just a month, led by a young Israeli doctor and Temple Mount activist. (Marks 2026)

For us as the church, keep looking up, He is coming soon.

Let's pray
