The Trump administration on Friday May 8th 2026 released a batch of "never-before-seen" files and videos on Unidentified Anomalous Phenomenon (UAP) as part of an effort to increase transparency on government knowledge of extraterrestrial phenomena.

The latest UAP videos, photos, and original source documents from across the entire United States government are all in one place – no clearance required. (Doocy and McGreevy 2026)

And with that announcement, let the games begin. Almost immediately, multiple fringe teachers glommed onto this as a means to increase book sales, clicks and even schedule an upcoming conference on the topic.

Is this all about aliens? Not really. I believe the Vice President of the United States comes a whole lot closer to the reality.

If the truth is out there when it comes to unexplained phenomena in the sky, Vice President J.D. Vance doesn't think it's aliens from outer space. Asked by podcaster Benny Johnson about releasing so-called UFO files, the vice president veered into his belief that rather than visitors from another planet it is supernatural forces at play. "I don't think they're aliens, I think they're demons," Vance said in a March 27 episode. (Bailey 2026)

My intent is to show us that this is all part of the scenario that we know of as the Days of Noah. The end of the age, signs of the soon Second Coming of Jesus Christ to this planet.

Here is the reality to all of this, it isn't new and is thousands of years old. It really is demonic.

UFO researcher Dr. Jacques Vallee wrote, as he was researching the history of UFO sightings in 1969 the following. "If we take a wide sample of this historical material, we find that it is organized around one central theme: visitation by an aerial people from one or more remote, legendary countries. The names and attributes vary, but the main idea clearly does not. Magonia, heaven, hell, Elfland — all such places have in common one characteristic: we are unable to reach them alive, except—as we shall see—on very special occasions. Emissaries from these supernatural abodes come to earth, sometimes under human form and sometimes as monsters. They perform wonders. They serve man or fight him. They influence civilizations through mystical revelation. They seduce earth women, and the few heroes who dare seek their friendship find the girls from Elfland endowed with desires that betray a carnal, rather than purely aerial, nature." (Vallee 2014, 9)

He is not the only researcher who, as the history of so-called alien sightings were catalogued, discovered this is not a new phenomena.

A farmer in Texas reported seeing a large circular object pass overhead at high speed. His name was John Martin, and when he told a reporter from the Dennison, Texas, Daily News about it, he made history of sorts by describing it as a "saucer." The date of his sighting was Thursday, January 24, 1878. (Keel 2013, 27)

And yes, there is history back to Genesis 6 of unknown beings coming to this planet, and conducting experiments as well as taking the women and doing what they would call today, abduction experimentation on human sexuality.

Genesis 6:1–8

"And Noah lived five hundred years, and Noah fathered three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And it happened when humans began to become numerous upon the earth, and they had daughters, the angels of God, having seen the daughters of humans, that they were beautiful, took for themselves women from all whom they picked out. The Lord God said, "My breath will certainly not reside in these humans for very long because they are flesh, but their days will be one hundred and twenty years." Now giants were upon the earth in those days, and after that, whenever the sons of God entered into the daughters of humans, they fathered children for themselves; those were the giants who were from long ago, the people of renown. Now the Lord God saw that the wicked actions of humans multiplied upon the earth, and everyone was focused in his heart on evil things all their days. And God reflected that he made humankind upon the earth and considered. And God said, "I will discard humanity, whom I made, from the face of the earth, from human to animal, and from creeping things to winged birds of the heavens, because I am angry that I made them." But Noah found grace before the Lord God." (Brannon, et al. 2020, Gen 6:1-8)

I am aware that there are those who do not believe this crime was done by fallen watchers, but by men. Peter and Jude would not agree with that view.

2 Peter 2:4–10

"For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment; if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority. Bold and willful, they do not tremble as they blaspheme the glorious ones," (ESV)

Jude 5–7

"Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day— just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire." (ESV)

For those who were living at the time not all took the actions of the fallen ones as beneficial.

But there was a real fear of this "alien invasion" of fallen divine beings. One of the documents found in the caves of Qumran included the Genesis Apocryphon. Lamech, son of Methuselah, his wife became pregnant with Noah. And by this time, there was concern.

"So then I thought to myself that the conception was from Watchers or that the seed was from Holy Ones, or (belonged) to Nephil[im]; and my mind wavered because of this child. Then I, Lamech, became frightened, and I went to Bitenosh, my wife and said to her," ...] [ ]'n' w'd by the Most High, by the Majestic Lord, by the King of all A[ges],[with one of] the sons of heaven, that you truthfully make everything known to me, whether [ ] you must tell me [truthfully] and without lies whether this.[... Swear by Most High, the Majestic Lord,] by the King of all Ages that you are speaking to me truthfully and without lies [ ]." (Fitzmeyer 2004, 69)

The book of Enoch also explains a bit more of this "invasion" and the impact of it. Yes, there were those who were in favor of it and those who were not. Enoch 6-8 gives more detail.

The Book of Enoch alleges that two hundred of these Watchers descended to Earth in the days of Jared (Genesis 5:18), and some of them are given names. The worst one of all was called Azazel. The name occurs in other Jewish documents, like the Apocalypse of Abraham. Azazel is accused of having "scattered over the earth the secrets of heaven and hath rebelled against the Mighty One." His name is also found in ancient Jewish ritual concerning the Day of Atonement. On that day, the iniquities of the people of Israel were laid on the scapegoat, and then the scapegoat was driven away “to Azazel, to the wilderness” (Leviticus 16). (Thomas 2008, 83)

How did they get here? They came to Mount Hermon in order to corrupt the earth and prevent their being any humans who would father the one who would fulfill the prophecy given in Genesis 3:15.

That is why God would destroy the earth in the flood. “Human depravity, sparked in Eden by the original rebel, had been inflamed and accelerated by a new rebellion. Divine rebels—supernatural intelligences—are thus blamed for humanity’s descent into self-destruction and idolatry.” (Heiser 2020, 136)

Yes, there are indeed those who look at certain petroglyphs and drawings and say, ancient aliens.

“Throughout the world’s religious texts we find a number of common threads regarding ancient visitations of beings from the heavens. In the mythology of the Greek and Roman empires we read of the Titans, the giants who were the offspring of the “gods” and their human wives. According to mythology they also assisted in the building of the magnificent monuments of Greece. In the Bible, in the sixth chapter of Genesis, we read that giants were born when the “sons of God” (widely interpreted in modern UFO literature as a race of extraterrestrials) came to the “daughters of men,” an obvious reference to human females. The Bible describes these hybrids as the “mighty men which were of old, men of renown.” According to numerous authors, these “mighty men” of the golden age were the “third party” who assisted mankind in the building of the monuments of Egypt, Stonehenge, the Americas, and the Far East.” (Missler and Eastman 1997, 50)

Matthew 24:37–41

“For the coming of the Son of Man will be just like the days of Noah. For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and they did not understand until the flood came and took them all away; so will the coming of the Son of Man be. At that time there will be two men in the field; one will be taken and one will be left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one will be left.” (NASB 2020)

Who are “they?” They have been working hard to corrupt the human race since Genesis 3 and “they” have been involved using the same game plan for a long time.

“They” are fallen divine beings convinced by Lucifer to join his rebellion, and thanks to the first incursion of Genesis 6, the spirits of those who were not human any longer as a result of the interbreeding that took place, provide the core of the demons for us. That we learn from Enoch since the Bible does not give us a demonic origin story. They are also their descendants.

Enoch 15:6–10

“You were living eternal spirits and not dying into all the generations of eternity. And because of this I did not make wives available for you; but the spirits of heaven, their dwelling is in heaven. And now the giants who are born from the spirits, even the strong spirits of flesh upon the earth, their dwelling will be on the earth. Evil spirits went out from their body, for they came from the higher places, and the beginning of their creation and foundation is from the watchful holy ones. They will be called evil spirits. And so for the spirits of heaven, their dwelling will be in heaven, and the spirits that are born upon the earth, their dwelling will be upon the earth.” (Brannon, et al. 2020, Enoch 15:6-10)

Yes, they were destroyed in the flood, but their spirits still remained here on the earth to do mischief. Jubilees points that out.

Jubilees 10:1

In the third week of that jubilee the polluted demons began to lead astray the children of Noah's sons and to lead them to folly and to destroy them. (Charlesworth 1985, 75)

And now that we are in the last days. Their activity, coordinated as it is with the fallen ones, seems to be increasing. Days of Noah again. John Keel, another researcher who has studied the history of UFO appearances through out history has the following observation

"Our skies are filled with Trojan horses and always have been. They are operating on a mysterious timetable, deliberately sowing confusion and nonsense in their wake. The believers and cultists have been crying for us to throw open the gates of the city and wheel the Trojan horse in... The Bible warns us that during "the last days" this planet will be overrun with wonders in the sky and false prophets and performers of miracles." (Keel 2013, 332-333)

1 Timothy 4:1-8

"But the Spirit explicitly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, by means of the hypocrisy of liars seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron, who forbid marriage and advocate abstaining from foods which God has created to be gratefully shared in by those who believe and know the truth. For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with gratitude; for it is sanctified by means of the word of God and prayer. In pointing out these things to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, constantly nourished on the words of the faith and of the good doctrine which you have been following. But stay away from worthless stories that are typical of old women. Rather, discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness; for bodily training is just slightly beneficial, but godliness is beneficial for all things, since it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come." (NASB 2020)

Deceitful spirits, yep. Impersonating ET. Worthless stories, yep, all those who are trying to make a buck off of us to "explain" what this is. It is Satanic, not a whole lot to see here. Again, aliens, really? Dr. Vallee did the math and made some conservative estimates.

UFO and close encounter incidents tend to happen only at night. "The number of close encounters is very low during the daylight hours. It starts increasing about 5 pm and reaches a maximum about 9 pm. It then decreases steadily until 1 am, then rises again to a secondary peak about 3 am and returns to its low diurnal level by 6 am." (Vallee, Five Arguments against the Extraterrestrial Theory 1990) The math points to millions of visits in only 40 years. Why?

The mounting proliferation of evidence for similar phenomena not only before 1945 but during the 19th century and indeed in the remote past of our culture has become convincing, although some ufologists, borrowing an argument from their skeptical opponents, are now pleading that such data should simply be disregarded. If it can be established that the phenomenon has indeed existed throughout history, adapting only its superficial shape but not its underlying structure to the expectations of the host culture, then we are unlikely to be dealing with extraterrestrials doing a survey of the earth. Nor are we dealing with advanced prototypes. Again, a more sophisticated class of explanations than both the Extra Terrestrial Hypothesis and the advanced technology hypothesis must be sought. In previous works I have pointed out that aerial phenomena very similar to our UFOs had been reported in the 9th century in the form of vessels in the sky, as airships in the days of Jules Verne, as ghost rockets in 1946 and as spacecraft in more recent times, as if they mimicked human expectations. Everything works as if the UFO phenomenon remained consistently one step ahead of human technology. In the last 10 years, as molecular biology has become more glamorous than electronics or even aerospace in our modern civilization, it should not be surprising to find the "Aliens" performing simulacra of genetic engineering interventions. The supporters of the ETH may have fallen into the trap of a first-level reading of the phenomenon's message.” (Vallee, Five Arguments against the Extraterrestrial Theory 1990) We should be reading this through the lens of the Bible and the supernatural world that it says truly exists.

Here is our Biblical reality. We have available to us, a book of extraterrestrial origin, we call it the Bible.

We were created, as well as everything in the universe by God. Who wanted to live with us in a place called Eden. “Adam and Eve lived in the garden. They cared for it. But the rest of the earth needed subduing. It wasn’t awful—in fact Genesis 1 tells us that it was habitable. But it wasn’t quite what Eden was. The whole world needs to be like God’s home. He could do the job himself, but he chose to create human imagers to do it for him. He issued the decree; they were supposed to make it happen. They were to do that by multiplying and following God’s direction.” (Heiser, The Unseen Realm: Discovering the Supernatural World of the Bible 2025, 62)

Before and after the fall, a working relationship with God existed, but now hampered by sin. But God still chose to use His creation to reach those who need to, now because of the sin nature, learn about Him and make a decision either for or against serving Him.

After the fall in Genesis 3, Satan made his initial attempt to further thwart the effort of the creator by corrupting the genetics of mankind in an effort to eliminate mankind.

By the way, as we have learned, that is also a stated goal of the transhumanist movement. To cybernetically and genetically alter mankind to Human 2.0.

Just published, Human 2.0: Reimagining HR in the Age of Transhumanism explores the transformative effects of transhumanist technologies, such as AI, biotechnology, and neuro-enhancements, on the field of human resources (HR). As technological advances blur the boundaries between human and machine, HR professionals find themselves at a pivotal juncture, where traditional workforce models must evolve to remain relevant. This edited collection provides a comprehensive analysis of how these emerging technologies will reshape HR practices, presenting a future-oriented view of a workplace enriched by innovations that amplify human capability and efficiency. (Emerald Insight 2025)

Even though fallen, Satan still has access to the trans-dimensional realm of heaven and is himself a multidimensional being as are all of the heavenly host, faithful and fallen.

We see aspects of this multidimensionality coming and going as it were through a door or portal to and from one reality to another, with Jesus. Earlier in the evening, Jesus had been walking with two disciples going to Emmaus, and then he disappeared when they realized who He was. They return to Jerusalem and once they get to where the 11 were at, they go into this closed room and begin explaining what had happened. And then Jesus walks in.

Luke 24:36–43

“Now while they were telling these things, Jesus Himself suddenly stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be to you.” But they were startled and frightened, and thought that they were looking at a spirit. And He said to them, “Why are you frightened, and why are doubts arising in your hearts? See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself; touch Me and see, because a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you plainly see that I have.” And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet. While they still could not believe it because of their joy and astonishment, He said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They served Him a piece of broiled fish; and He took it and ate it in front of them.” (NASB 2020)

Ezekiel also confronted a multidimensional reality while in this current one when the throne room of God came to see him there outside of Babylon. Before I was saved, I would say, UFO, but no, it is indeed the throne of God and He is accompanied by some remarkable looking creatures who are part of the heavenly host.

Satan is a liar and a deceiver. He has been playing a long game over the centuries and he also knows that most humans do not learn from history or remember or will research anything but take the lie instead if it is presented well enough.

Hollywood has been a willing accomplice by making motion pictures depicting aliens, good ones and bad ones, benevolent and malevolent as well. This is all in preparation for the big lie that is and will be further foisted on the earth in the near future. Aliens did this. The rapture was nothing more than a method to get rid of those who would not evolve effectively to the next level. These are fallen angels disguising themselves as aliens in order to promulgate this lie.

In the testimony of those who have been abducted, one of the stories is as follows.

Aliens make predictions of an imminent period of global chaos and destruction. They say that a certain number of humans...will be "rescued" from the planet in order to continue the species, either on another planet or back on Earth after the destruction is over. Many abductees report they don't believe their alien captors and foresee instead a much more sinister use of the "rescued" humans. (Ruffino and Jordan 2010)

I am stopping here. There is so much on this topic it is unreal. Jesus Christ is returning at any second. How do I know? We are in the days of Noah right now, in all of the various aspects that that phrase means.

Let's pray.
