Title: There is Therefore Now No Condemnation for Those Who Are in Christ Jesus

Scripture: Romans 8:1-11

September Scripture Memory: There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Two foundational truths of being “in Christ” for every follower of Jesus. (Romans 8:1)

1. There is therefore now no (not one) condemnation for those in Christ. (Rom 8:1; John 3:16-18)
2. Nothing will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ. (Rom 8:39)
 - a. Nothing done to us & Nothing we do: past, present & future.

Rankin Wilbourne: “God doesn’t love you to the degree that you are like Christ. He loves you to the degree that you are in Christ and that is always 100%.”

How do I know if I am “in Christ” and there is no condemnation for me?

1. Because the Spirit of God dwells and works in me. (Rom. 8:2, 9-11) (tupperwear)
2. Because I set my mind on the Spirit and not the flesh. (Rom. 8:5-7)

Am I in Christ?

- Do I have the Spirit of God dwelling and working in me?
- Do I set my mind on the Spirit? (Or is my mind set on the flesh)

How is Christ in me?

- Contact principle - I must abide in Christ.

How does the Spirit dwell in me?

- Storage principle - I am filled with the Holy Spirit.
