

LEAH: A STORY OF SIGNIFICANCE

Women of the Bible Message Series Week 4

Genesis 29-49

Pastor Scott Marshall

August 2, 2026

When I feel insignificant, I will remember that...

1. My significance is not determined by others.
(Genesis 29:30-31; Matthew 10:30-31)
2. My significance is satisfied in God.
(Genesis 29:31-35; Psalm 16:11; Matthew 5:6)
3. My significance is fulfilled through God's purposes.
(Genesis 29:35; Matthew 1:1-2)
4. My significance is revealed over time.
(Genesis 49:31; Isaiah 55:8-9)

I am seen. I am significant.

My significance is not determined by who chooses me.
My significance is determined by the God who chose me.

I am blessed.

I am chosen.

I am loved.

I am adopted.

I am redeemed.

I am forgiven.

I am heir.

I am sealed.

Ephesians 1:3-14

Resource:

The Search for Significance by Robert S. McGee

