Titus Background:

Author: Paul- An early church servant of God and apostle of Jesus Christ.

Recipient: Titus- A companion and coworker of the apostle Paul for the sake of the gospel.

Date: AD 64

Location: Crete- A large island in the Mediterranean Sea approximately 100 miles southeast of the mainland of Greece. Cretan culture was known for its moral decay.

Purpose: Paul wrote to Titus to charge him to establish elders and teach sound doctrine for the building up of the faith of God's people in the knowledge of God's truth for the purpose of godly living in an ungodly world.

Live godly lives in an ungodly world by...

1. Knowing that the object of your faith determines the outcome of your life.
2. Following elders who hold firm and hold forth the word of truth.
