Because Jesus is our living water:

1. In Him we experience satisfaction.

   "The root of sin is pursuing happiness in something other than God, and sin produces an ever-increasing craving for an ever-diminishing pleasure."

   Matt Carter and Josh Wredberg, Christ-Centered Exposition: Exalting Jesus in John, B&H Publishing Group, Brentwood, TN, 2017, p. 94.

   "Only Jesus can quench your thirst. Whatever you crave, whatever you long for, whatever you need, only Jesus can provide. Stop drinking from the wells of sin and come to Jesus. He offers living water. He offers what can truly satisfy."

   Matt Carter and Josh Wredberg, Christ-Centered Exposition: Exalting Jesus in John, B&H Publishing Group, Brentwood, TN, 2017, p. 95.

   - Satisfaction in Jesus is through obedience and surrender.

2. In Him we experience forgiveness, grace, and mercy. (Ephesians 1:7; Romans 5:20-21; 1 Timothy 1:15-16)

   "…It is vital for you and me to always remember that we live in the 'already' of complete forgiveness. Forgiveness is not a 'hope it will be' thing. It's an 'accomplished and done' thing. You do not have to hope that you will be forgiven…Why? Because your complete and final forgiveness was accomplished on the cross of Jesus Christ…Forgiveness is complete."

   Paul David Tripp, New Morning Mercies, Crossway, Wheaton, IL, 2014, May 21.

3. In Him we experience His presence. (Colossians 1:27)

4. In Him we experience His sufficiency.
   (2 Corinthians 12:9-10)

   "You can look at all your internal and external challenges from the perspective of your track record and present a catalog of abilities, or you can look at them from the vantage point of the sufficiency of the work of Jesus on your behalf…You are not left to your own resources. Because you are 'in Christ,' your potential is greater than the sum of your parts."

   Paul David Tripp, New Morning Mercies, Crossway, Wheaton, IL, 2014, October 28.

5. In Him we experience His love. (Romans 8:35, 37-39)

6. In Him we have eternal life. (John 11:25-26)

"Your relationship with God through Jesus Christ is your life. It touches and alters every aspect of your existence; it redefines your identity. It infuses your life with new meaning and purpose, and it completely reshapes your destiny. So the work of Jesus on your behalf must be the window through which you look at everything in your life. Don't give way to the fear of inability when the work of Jesus has supplied you with everything you need."

Paul David Tripp, New Morning Mercies, Crossway, Wheaton, IL, 2014, October 28.
