Proverbs is Solomon's legacy journal of wisdom and instruction written to his sons. There are over 50 references to “son” in the book.

A father's mandate is to diligently teach his children what they need to know and to discipline their hearts in order for them to become who God wants them to be so they can do what is pleasing to the LORD, to their mom and dad, and to extend their family's godly legacy!

Diligently Teach:

- Discipline the hearts.
- Be who you want them to be.
- A father's ultimate job description is to father his children the same way God fathers His.
- Of all the word pictures God could have used to reveal Himself to His people...He chose Father!

God is Father to the fatherless:

- God our Father provides for us.
- God our Father teaches us.
- God our Father disciplines us.
- God our Father forgives and restores us.

So what?

- Make sure God the Father is your spiritual Father.
- Ask God to forgive any resentments.
- Thank your Heavenly Father for His forgiveness.
- Study God's Word and teach it to your children.
- Discipline / disciple your children's hearts.
- Live your life consistently.
- Look for opportunities to be a father to the fatherless.
