

Title: See Right Through It

15Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints,
Ephesians 1:15

16do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers:
Ephesians 1:16

17that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him,
Ephesians 1:17

18the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints,

19and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power
Ephesians 1:19

20which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places,
Ephesians 1:20

21far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come.
Ephesians 1:21

22And He put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the church,
Ephesians 1:22

23which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

See right through it

When God's authority feels challenged.. we do not need to fight for control, but to comprehend the truth

All this energy issues from Christ: God raised him from death and set him on a throne in deep heaven, in charge of running the universe, everything from galaxies to governments, no name and no power exempt from his rule. And not just for the time being, but forever. He is in charge of it all, has the final word on everything. At the center of all this, Christ rules the church. The church, you see, is not peripheral to the world; the world is peripheral to the church. The church is Christ's body, in which he speaks and acts, by which he fills everything with his presence.

Ephesians 1:20
