

Title: Becoming What Feels Impossible

1Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Hebrews 11:1

2For by it the elders obtained a good testimony.

Hebrews 11:2

16Therefore it is of faith that it might be according to grace, so that the promise might be sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all

Romans 4:16

17(as it is written, “I have made you a father of many nations”) in the presence of Him whom he believed—God, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did;

Romans 4:17

18who, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was spoken”

Romans 4:18

Becoming What Feels Impossible

17in the presence of Him whom he believed...

Romans 4:17

17...God, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did;

Romans 4:17

18who, contrary to hope..."

Romans 4:18

18....In hope believed..."

Romans 4:18

18...So that he became the father of many nations, according to what was spoken"

Romans 4:18

19And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb.

Romans 4:19

20He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God,

Romans 4:20

21and being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform.

Romans 4:21

22And therefore “it was accounted to him for righteousness.”

Romans 4:22

23Now it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him,

Romans 4:23

24but also for us. It shall be imputed to us who believe in Him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead,

Romans 4:24

25who was delivered up because of our offenses, and was raised because of our justification.

Romans 4:25
