

We Shall Be Changed

Jesus lives!

“But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive”
(Genesis 50:20).

Decode the message below to find the hope we have in Jesus.

Can you solve the riddle for the mystery word?

- When someone is full of me, they are happy.
- When someone is missing me, they want to give up and quit.
- I make weak people strong.
- Everyone wants me.
- I rhyme with rope.
- What am I? _____

ACROSS

- 3 Followers of Jesus
- 4 Who was standing at the tomb?
- 6 Place where Jesus' body was laid
- 7 Jesus was ____ on the cross
- 8 What was rolled away from the tomb?
- 9 One of the women at the tomb

DOWN

- 1 What we celebrate at Easter
- 2 Natural disaster that happened after Jesus died
- 5 Where was Jesus going after He rose?
- 6 The amount of time Jesus was dead

Color the picture of the empty tomb.

I have hope because Jesus lives.

MOVE!

Matthew 27:62–66; 28:1–8; I Corinthians 15:52:
We Shall Be Changed

As Jesus died on the cross, darkness fell across the land. That evening, a rich follower of Jesus named Joseph of Arimathea took possession of Jesus' body. They wrapped Jesus' lifeless corpse in a long, clean sheet and placed it in a new tomb recently carved out of rock. As Mary Magdalene and another Mary watched, a large stone was rolled across the entrance.

The next day, the priests responsible for Jesus' crucifixion went to see Pilate. "Sir, we think Jesus' followers will steal Jesus' body and then tell everyone He has raised from the dead. Will you please seal the tomb?" Pilate agreed to seal the tomb and sent extra guards.

Early on Sunday morning, Mary Magdalene and another Mary returned to the tomb to apply spices to Jesus' body. Suddenly a great earthquake erupted as an angel rolled aside the stone that covered the tomb. The angel perched atop the stone door as the guards below fainted. The angel's face shone bright white and his clothing was white as snow.

As the women cowered, the angel declared, "Don't be afraid! I know you seek Jesus who was crucified, but He is not here! He is risen, just as He said. Come look where His body was lying." The women saw that the tomb was indeed empty.

The angel continued, "Go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead. He will meet you in Galilee. Now, go!"

The women ran quickly from the tomb. They were frightened but also filled with great joy. They rushed to give the disciples the incredible good news. Jesus is alive!