Are You a Good Neighbor?

"Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself" (Matthew 22:37–39).

Ask a friend to give you words according to what is needed to fill in the blanks. Then read the story of the good Samaritan with a silly slant.

A traveler was beaten by	(number)	(adjective) thieves and left for dead on the side of a	_ (adjective) road called	(street name).
A priest saw the man but	(past tense verb) to the other side of the (adjective) road. He cou	ıldn't be bothered by such	a(adjective) person.
Then a Levite saw the man but (past tense verb) to the other side of the (adjective) road. He o	lidn't have time for such a	(adjective) person.
Finally, about(nui	mber) hours later, a Samar	itan from a strange place like
(city) saw the	(adjective) man	. The Samaritan had compassion on the man and took	(adjective) care of hir	n. The Samaritan bound the
(adjective) man	's (number) wou	nds and let him ride on his
(animal) all t	he way to the	(hotel name).
It cost (number) dollars, but the Samaritan paid the price willingly because this (adjective) man's life	e was worth it and	(number) times more to him.

Which of these men is the good Samaritan who stopped to help the wounded man? How is the story of the good Samaritan like Jesus' love for us and the price He paid so we could be saved? Tell one way you can be a good neighbor.

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

Matthew 22:37–40; Luke 10:25–37 (paraphrased)

Jesus reminded people of what God first told Moses. "You should love God with all your heart, soul, and mind. That is the first great commandment, and the second commandment is like it." Jesus continued, "You should love your neighbor as yourself."

One day a religious expert asked Jesus how to gain eternal life. Jesus responded with a question, "What does the law of Moses say?"

The man answered, "Love God with everything within you and love your neighbor as yourself, but who is my neighbor?"

This time Jesus responded with a story. "Once upon a time, a Jewish traveler was attacked and beaten by bandits. They left him bleeding by the side of the road. A priest came along but didn't stop to help because he was too busy. A temple worker came along, saw the helpless man, but kept walking. Finally, a Samaritan came along. He stopped."

Gasps filled the crowd. Jews didn't like Samaritans and couldn't imagine them doing anything good, especially for a Jew.

Jesus continued, "The Samaritan bandaged the man's wounds, carried him to an inn, and paid the innkeeper to take care of the man until he was better." Jesus then asked, "So who was the neighbor?"

The religious expert answered, "The one who showed mercy."

Jesus nodded. "Yes, now go and do the same."

