Scripture Reading

Matthew 6:1-4

“Beware of practicing your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

²“So whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. ³But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴so that your alms may be done in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer (Unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

*Congregational Hymn

Thou Hidden Love of God

Thou hidden love of God, whose height,
Whose depth unfathomed no man knows,
I see from far Thy beauteous light,
Inly I sigh for Thy repose;
My heart is pained, nor can it be
At rest, till it finds rest in Thee.

'Tis mercy all, that Thou hast brought
My mind to seek her peace in Thee;
Yet, while I seek but find Thee not,
No peace my wand'ring soul shall see.
Oh, when shall all my wand'rings end,
And all my steps to Thee-ward tend!

Is there a thing beneath the sun
That strives with Thee my heart to share?
Ah! tear it thence, and reign alone,
The Lord of every motion there.
Then shall my heart from earth be free,
When it has found repose in Thee.

Each moment draw from earth away
My heart which lowly waits Thy call;
Speak to my inmost soul and say
"I am Thy Love, Thy God, Thy All."
To feel Thy power, to hear Thy voice,
To taste Thy love, be all my choice.

Scripture Reading

Leviticus 1:1-9

The Lord summoned Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying: ² Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: When any of you bring an offering of livestock to the Lord, you shall bring your offering from the herd or from the flock.

³ If the offering is a burnt offering from the herd, you shall offer a male without blemish; you shall bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, for acceptance in your behalf before the Lord. ⁴ You shall lay your hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be acceptable in your behalf as atonement for you. ⁵ The bull shall be slaughtered before the Lord; and Aaron's sons the priests shall offer the blood, dashing the blood against all sides of the altar that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ⁶ The burnt offering shall be flayed and cut up into its parts. ⁷ The sons of the priest Aaron shall put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire. ⁸ Aaron's sons the priests shall arrange the parts, with the head and the suet, on the wood that is on the fire on the altar; ⁹ but its entrails and its legs shall be washed with water. Then the priest shall turn the whole into smoke on the altar as a burnt offering, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the Lord.

Offering: You are invited to place your offering in one of the plates on the tables in the front of the Sanctuary as you leave.

November's Loose Coin Offering will go toward The Dorothy A. Rosenberg Good Will Place. Families receive a three-to-five day supply of food on each visit to the Pantry. Your donations will help purchase food for our neighbors who need a helping hand. Let your change change the life of a member of our downtown community.

Today and November 21, we will gather fresh produce for the Good Will Place Pantry. Bring the fruits and vegetables you wish to donate to church and place them in a basket front of the Sanctuary. Your own homegrown produce or something you purchase is a wonderful gift for the families who use our Pantry.

Operation Christmas Child boxing and “Hanging of the Greens”

This Wednesday, November 17, will be a different kind of program for us! And, it is going to be a busy evening. We will have two service projects happening at the same time: the boxing of the Operation Christmas Child items (Fellowship Hall with the Youth) and the Hanging of the Greens (Sanctuary with the adults). We will begin both events at 5:30 PM. There will be bottled water and snacks at this time. Pizza will be delivered at 7:00 PM, to the Gathering Area, giving us ninety minutes to get our service projects complete. Please RSVP to Lina or in the You Can Count On Me.

Organ Recital, Sunday, November 21 at 4:00 PM

Please join us here at First United Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon, November 21, at 4:00 PM, for an organ recital presented by nine members of the Northeastern Wisconsin Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. The organists will provide a wide range of reflective and entertaining organ selections, and the program will include the singing of several hymns by the audience. A reception will be held following the program in the Gathering Area. The recital is free; a free-will offering will be taken to support the chapter's scholarship program to train new organists.

Women's Advent Event

A visit with a dear friend can really lift your spirits. Time spent with a friend helps us figure out how to manage all the things we are trying to balance. Our friends provide us with clarity in moments of chaos and frenzy -- anytime -- but especially during the holiday season or a particularly unusual time. This year, we will be part of a visit between Mary and Elizabeth as they discuss their rather extraordinary pregnancies. And we will have time to reflect on how our special bonds are a gift. We will also collect a special gift for Wellspring, to be used to help with programs for women and children. Join us on Tuesday, November 30, at 6:30 PM, in the sanctuary and via livestream. Following the program, we will have enjoy the fellowship of friends with a light reception and be able to enjoy the talents of our First Quilters. Please RSVP at the Welcome Center or in the You Can Count on Me.

Nativity Sets for EPH Families

Last year, we provided Nativity Sets to the EPH Families. It was a meaning gift for us to give and the families who got them loved having them. This year, we will again provide them to the EPH Families. Each family will receive a child-friendly Melissa and Doug nativity set they may take with them when they exit the program. We hope they will relive the Christmas story year after year, as well as be reminded remind of the reason for the Christmas season. The cost to sponsor one is $28 and there is one on display at the Welcome Center. To participate, grab a red envelope at the Welcome Center to make your gift. There are only a few left!
