

An Outline of Luke 18:1-8

Thesis ¹Then He spoke a parable to them, that people always ought to pray and not lose heart, ² saying:

A “There was in a certain city a judge

B who did not fear God

C nor regard man.

D³ Now there was a widow in that city;

E and she came to him,

F saying, ‘Get justice for me from my adversary.’

A’ ⁴ And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself,

B’ Although I do not fear God

C’ nor regard man,

D’ ⁵ yet because this widow troubles me

E’ lest she keeps continually coming to me,

F’ I will give her justice against her adversary.

Conclusion ⁶ Then the Lord said, “Hear what the unjust judge said. ⁷ And shall God not vindicate His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them? ⁸ I tell you that He will vindicate them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?”
