

SERIES: TRANSFORMING ENCOUNTERS

A Possessed, Captive Man Is Set Free To Live A Productive Life, Luke 8:26-39

- I. Transformed lives demonstrate the power and authority of Christ in a sinful world. Vv. 27-28
 - A. No one is beyond the power of Christ. V. 29
 - B. No evil is above the authority of Christ.
James 2:19; Mat. 25:41; 2 Pet. 2:4; Rev. 20:3

- II. Transformation involves liberation and healing. Vv. 35-36; Mat. 12:22-29; Luke 11:24-26
 - A. Jesus alone sets us free.
 - B. Jesus alone saves us.

- III. Untransformed men reject Christ's presence because of self-centered fear. V. 37

- IV. Transformed men are commissioned to tell what God has done for them. Vv. 38-39; Luke 24:46-49

Take Aways:

1. No one is too "messed up" for Christ to heal and transform.
2. Real transformation involves a new life miracle.
3. If you have been saved, you've got a great story to tell.
4. You are commissioned to tell everyone what Jesus has done for you.
