MY COVENANT WITH THE LORD

Walking in the Covenant of Abraham

A COVENANT THAT STILL STANDS

What you are about to sign is not a new agreement with God. It is your “yes” to a covenant He has kept for thousands of years — the covenant He cut with Abraham, sealed forever, and extended to you through the blood of Jesus.

“I will establish my covenant as an everlasting covenant between me and you and your descendants after you for the generations to come, to be your God and the God of your descendants after you.”

— Genesis 17:7

“He remembers his covenant forever, the promise he made, for a thousand generations — the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac.”

— 1 Chronicles 16:15–17 • Psalm 105:8–10

“Know therefore that the Lord your God is God; he is the faithful God, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commandments.”

— Deuteronomy 7:9

And if you belong to Christ, this covenant is not distant history — it is your inheritance:

“If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.”

— Galatians 3:29

Abraham did not merely believe something — he yielded his whole life to God. Today, you are invited to do the same.

THE COVENANT PRAYER

Father, from this day forward, I make a covenant with You — to seek You with all my heart and all my soul.

It is my desire to serve You, to honor You, and to obey You. I yield myself fully to You.

Spirit of God, I open the door of my heart to You. Reveal Yourself to me. Make Yourself known to me.

Fill me, through my whole being, with the fullness of You. Let me carry the richest measure of Your divine presence — a life wholly filled and flooded with You.

Fill me with Your revelation light. Give me eyes to see and ears to hear what You are saying.

I rejoice in You, and I thank You for this covenant.

In Jesus' Name, I pray.

I love You, Lord.

MY DECLARATION

By signing below, I declare that I am entering this covenant with the Lord — not as a formality, but as a heart decision to walk with Him, in the same faith Abraham walked in, from this day forward.
