

A Proverb a Day V3P2
The Blessing of God 1
Sunday, November 22, 2020

- I. A Proverb a Day
- A. Your Words Aligned with God's Word
1. (Heb. 11:3 NKJV; 1:3 AMP) God's Word is the ultimate power (the parent force) that created everything, and is continually holding everything together in the universe.
- B. The Blessing of God
1. (Prov. 10:6) Blessing and curses are conferred by words.
 - a. What is the blessing of God?
 - The blessing of God is God's divine favor spoken over you.
 - The blessing of God is not "the things." A house, car, money, health is not the blessing. Things are the by-products of the blessing.
 - b. (Gen. 1:26-28) God conferred blessing on mankind at creation.
 - (Gen. 3:17-19) the earth is under the influence of the curse of the Satan after the fall of man.
 - (Gen. 4:9-11) Cain was cursed from the ground.
 - (Mal. 4:5-6 NLT) OT ends in the earth's curse.
 - c. (Gal. 3:13-14 NLT) Jesus came to rescue mankind from the curse by taking the curse upon Himself.
 - (Gal. 3:9 NLT) believers have the same blessing that Abraham received.
 2. (Gen. 12:1-3) the Blessing of Abraham
 - a. (Gen. 13:1-7) Abram became rich after lying about Sarai being his sister to Pharaoh in Egypt.
 - Lot and Abram separate
 - b. (Gen. 14:18-20) Melchizedek blesses Abram.
 - c. (Gen. 15:6, 18) God makes covenant with Abram.
 - Abram has Ishmael with Hagar in chap. 16
 - d. (Gen. 17:1-7, 15-19) God changes their names!
 - e. (Gen. 21:1-7) Sarah births Isaac
 - f. (Gen. 22:14-18) God tests Abraham
 - g. (Gen. 24:1) Abraham blessed
