

Leaving a Legacy

Father's Day

6/19/22

Brady Cortner

Scripture:

Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord. —Ephesians 6:4

Notes:

It's easier to raise strong children than to repair broken men. —Frederick Douglass

Leaving a legacy requires us to know our Lord

- Do you know the Lord?
- The Lord our Ruler
- The Lord our Leader
- His way is the best way

Leaving a legacy requires us to know our mission

- Bring them up — to raise, nurture and nourish by providing needs
- Discipline — to train someone with proper rules and behavior
- Instruction — to train someone with proper behavior and belief
- Leading our children includes both the what and the why
- Know the difference between a moral issue and a cultural issue

You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. —Deuteronomy 6:7

We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, and his might, and the wonders that he has done. —Psalm 78:4

Leaving a legacy requires us to know our children

- How to provoke your children
- Spare the rod, spoil the child
- Do you know what makes your child mad? ...discouraged?
- Do you know what makes your child feel most loved? ...valued?

This Week...

- Check your relationship with the Father
- Check your relationship with your wife
- Read the Word
- Pray the Word
- Connect with other dads (other men)
