

Lost Then Found

Luke 24: ³⁶While they were still talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” ³⁷They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a ghost. ³⁸He said to them, “Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? ³⁹Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see; a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have.” ⁴⁰When he had said this, he showed them his hands and feet. ⁴¹And while they still did not believe it because of joy and amazement, he asked them, “Do you have anything here to eat?” ⁴²They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³and he took it and ate it in their presence. ⁴⁴He said to them, “This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms.” ⁴⁵Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures. ⁴⁶He told them, “This is what is written: The Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷and repentance and forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

The WHAT of Easter: Jesus rose from the dead!

The WHY of Easter: To seek and rescue lost people.

Luke 15 contains three stories Jesus told to help:

- Define what it means to be lost.
- Reveal God’s commitment to those who are lost.

Story of the Lost Sheep

- Lost = someone who doesn’t understand the risks.

Story of the Lost Coin

- Lost = someone who doesn’t know their worth.

Story of the Lost Sons

- Lost = someone who doesn’t know their identity.

God’s Response to the Lost:

- God prioritizes the lost.
- God relentlessly searches for the lost.
- God loves and respects the lost.
