In most cases, the Hebrew is to be read from right to left.

The Prophetic Return to Sodom

This transcript from Corner Fringe Ministries features a message by Pastor Daniel Joseph regarding a massive LGBTQ+ festival scheduled to take place near the historical site of Sodom in Israel. Daniel interprets this event as a prophetic sign of the end times, drawing parallels between modern occurrences and biblical warnings. He cites passages from Leviticus and Revelation to argue that the celebration of homosexuality at this specific location mirrors the spiritual state described in scripture before divine judgment. Daniel further notes the symbolic weight of the event organizer's name and the use of the rainbow, linking current affairs to the historical accounts of Lot and Noah. Ultimately, he serves a call for prayer and repentance, urging readers to recognize the urgency of the return of the Messiah.

[Daniel Joseph]

Welcome, everyone, to another episode of Ask the Pastor. Over the last week, there have been enough people who have come to me and brought a certain event to me and are asking, "What is, if any, the prophetic significance of this particular event?" And so, I figured I'd just post a video on it because this is starting to go viral. This is starting to be talked about virtually everywhere, so what is this event?

Well, let me read a headline to you. And this headline comes to us from The Christian Post. This is what it says: The Christian Post, By Jon Brown, Christian Post Reporter—Wednesday, April 22, 2026—Israel promotes 'biggest LGBTQ+ festival ever, ever, in the Middle East' near site of Sodom: 'Mocking God' (emphasis added).

Now the article goes on and says, "The official X account of Israel, which is run by the Israeli Foreign Ministry, promoted an upcoming four-day LGBTQ+ pride festival in June at the Dead Sea, which some detractors on social media noted is the traditional location of Sodom and Gomorrah. 'Pride rises at the lowest place on earth,' the Monday post read. "This June the Dead Sea becomes Pride Land, the biggest LGBTQ+ festival ever in the Middle East. Four days of nonstop celebration (of) community and connection. Israel celebrates its LGBTQ+ community bigger than ever." (Emphasis added).

This is one of those moments where you say you cannot make this stuff up. Where they're literally going back to the very region of Sodom, and they're going to celebrate the very thing that Sodom was destroyed for. The very sin that Sodom is known for. There was one sin, and that was homosexuality. Now they're going back to virtually ground zero to celebrate the very thing that got Sodom destroyed.

Again, this is one of those moments you cannot make up. And then on top of that, they're going to call this "Pride Land." So, you have Israel, which was given by God to His people, and they were to come into this land of promise, and it is interesting that when you go to the Torah, God warns them. I mean, there's an explicit warning in Leviticus 18:22, and it begins in the Hebrew. It's Ve'et zachar lo tishkav mishkevei ishav to'evah hi (וְאִתּוֹ זָכָר לֹא תִשְׁכַּב מִשְׁכַּבִּי אִשָּׁה תוֹעֵבָה הוּא). "You shall not lie with a male, as with a female; it is an abomination."

And then the LORD, after that, goes on in Leviticus 18:24-25 and says, "Do not defile yourselves with any of these things; for by all these the nations are defiled, which I am casting out before you."²⁵ For the land is defiled; therefore I visit the punishment of its iniquity upon it, and the land vomits out its inhabitants." (Emphasis added). God sends a warning, "Don't do as they have done. Don't do these things because I will visit punishment for these sins." And so, there's a warning.

So, do I think this event that is going to happen virtually at ground zero of Sodom, where Israel is formally taking this position, calling this now, dedicating this as "Pride Land," and going to celebrate a behavior that scripturally is an abomination to God and that provokes God to wrath and brings about judgment? Do I think that it's prophetically significant that this is going to happen? Absolutely. And more than ever, Israel needs our prayers.

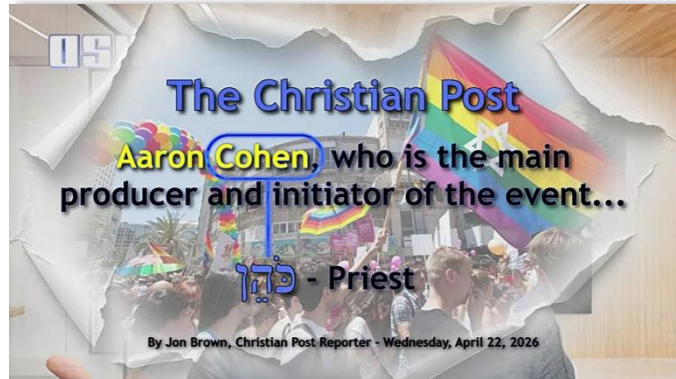

Now, to continue in this vein of "you can't make this stuff up." I want to read to you part of this article in The Christian Post. It records a detail that's very, very important, and it says this: "Aaron Cohen, who is the main producer and initiator of the event, told the outlet that the scale of the festival is unprecedented." This is not just another festival, it's the biggest thing we've done here," he said (emphasis added).

This is unprecedented, no doubt. There's no question about it; we got that, but did you catch—can't make it up—did you catch the name of the one who is the organizer, who is called the main producer of this event? His name is Aaron Cohen (emphasis added). Cohen is Hebrew for "priest." I mean, come on, you can't write this stuff. In other words, his name is "Aaron the priest" in essence.

And the reason this is significant is that it was Aaron Cohen, Aaron the priest, who was the main organizer in the incident of the golden calf that led Israel into idolatry. There are just times where, like, how do you write this stuff? How is this stuff possibly happening?

So, what I would submit to you, if history is any indication whatsoever—Oh God, help Israel. God have mercy on this situation because the last time I saw Aaron Cohen, or Aaron the priest, lead the charge and lead Israel into sin, judgment followed. So, to say this is troubling is a gross understatement.

To say Israel needs the gospel of Yeshua the Messiah is an understatement. That said, I can tell you on a whole other prophetic level, we were told these things would come to pass scripturally. And the reason that's significant is because you want to know how close you are to the return of Yeshua the Messiah, Jesus the Christ. You want to know how soon He is coming.

The book of Revelation told us that Israel would be embracing the LGBTQ+ ideology in the last days. We were told this. And where we're told this is in the book of Revelation. We are living in the pages of the book of Revelation.

I want to take you to Revelation 11:6-7: “These have power to shut heaven.” It's talking about the two prophets. “So that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire. ⁷ When they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them.” (Emphasis added).

Now, just for a quick clarity's sake, this is the first time the beast is mentioned in the book of Revelation, and the beast that's been talked about is the one that ascends out of the earth. And this is a very significant detail because there are two beasts that are explicitly detailed in the book of Revelation. One comes out of the sea; the other comes out of the earth.

Now this beast that comes out of the earth is typically identified even in the book of Revelation as the false prophet or the antichrist. This is the one that imposes upon the world the mark of the beast. If you don't receive the mark of the beast, he's going to kill you. This is the beast that we're talking about.

This is the beast, the Antichrist, that comes against the two prophets. And so, we're talking about an all-out war against light versus darkness here. Now, here's where we get to our point in Revelation 11:8— And their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city, which is spiritually called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified (emphasis added).

In other words, we're told when the Antichrist is taking center stage, at the end of the age. When you're talking about being in the last seconds of the last minute of the last hour, you're in the end times where the Antichrist rises. We were told that Israel would have embraced and would be in a state of complete lawlessness, specifically in regard to the sin of Sodom.

Meaning they would be embracing this ideology of homosexuality and sexual perversion that Sodom was known for, to the point where Yerushalayim is being called the city of Sodom. Now, this is one of those moments that prophetically you have to take in because of what we're literally seeing in the state of Israel today.

Furthermore, you have these LGBTQ+ parades that have made their way into Jerusalem. And this has been happening for several years. So, I want to awaken you right now to how soon the return of our Lord is and prophetically where we are. We are at the end.

The Bible prophesied that Israel would be given over specifically to this sin. And now we're going to have an event taking place in the very region of Sodom and Gomorrah, which they're touting as unprecedented. It's the biggest thing they're saying that they've ever done on this level. I mean, prophetically, it is incredible what we are witnessing.

Furthermore, I think it's worth noting what Yeshua says in Luke Chapter 17. And again, this is Bible prophecy. In Luke 17:26, He says, "And as it was in the days of Noah, so it will also be in the days of the Son of Man." (Emphasis added). It's talking about His return. He's going to come back when the world is in a state like that of the days of Noah.

Luke 17:27-30—They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage until the day that Noah entered the ark and the flood came and destroyed them all. Likewise, as it was in the days of Lot: Now, we're talking about Sodom and Gomorrah. They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built. But on the day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed (emphasis added). Two specific events in history Yeshua brings to the table and says, "These two events, pay attention to these. Take these events in because so it will be in My coming."

I want you to think about something. At this biggest event that Israel is hosting in the very region of Sodom, which is unprecedented, they are going to be flying pride flags everywhere. You're going to see these rainbow pride flags all over the place in celebration of sexual immorality, the very sin that Sodom was accused of and destroyed for, and you're going to see this in the very region of Sodom itself.

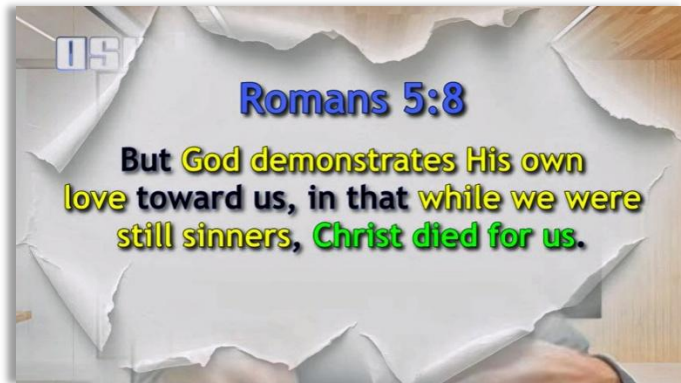

Now I want you to think about this. There is a very well-known symbol for the story of Noah, for the days of Noah. And what is that symbol? It is the rainbow. You cannot make this stuff up. It's the rainbow that is the symbol for the days of Noah, the symbol that God Himself gave.

And we're going to see that symbol, even though it's a perverted form of that symbol; we're going to see that in the very region of Sodom, these two things literally coming together. Now I'm telling you, you can't write this stuff, but I'm sharing this with you because when you start looking at current events right now, through the lens of Scripture, your mind is blown.

It's all saying one thing: the Lord is coming; His return is so soon, and one of the things that we know that has to transpire in Israel is that things have to get much worse before Israel returns to the LORD. Things are going to get much worse, and in the Bible itself, the prophets detail this; the prophet Zechariah details that things are going to get much worse in Israel.

Well, we understand why they're going to get much worse in Israel. In part, number one, because the sin is so grave. And it's not that—let's be clear—you know, I, as an American and knowing the sins that we are immersed in, have taught Israel to sin, so I am not casting stones here and bringing judgment on Israel for this sin. I certainly will renounce it, but the entire world is guilty of what she's doing.

That said, this is going to come with judgment. We are going to see horrible things coming to Israel, and it's going to be the byproduct of God's people embracing sin. This will not go unanswered. And so more than ever, our Jewish brothers and sisters need prayer; they need the gospel; they need salvation; they need to know the message of hope and repentance; they need to know the love of Jesus, the love of Yeshua the Messiah that He has for them, and the truth will set them free and bring them out, and in tandem, that's what the world needs.

All these individuals who are practicing the alternative lifestyle—God loves them so much that He sent His Son. While they were still in their sins, Christ died for them, and he wants to set them free so that they can have the beauty of eternal life and so that they can have joy and peace, all the things that Satan is robbing them of now.

Satan wants to destroy them, and he wants to redefine the term "love," and he wants to call true love "hatred," and he wants to call true hatred "love." There's another way to describe this, but we are living in crazy times. Demonic times where Satan is literally trying to take every soul into the depths of hell. God, have mercy on this situation.

And so, I just bring up this situation because I have had several people come up to me and ask, "Do you see any prophetic significance to this event in Israel?" Are you kidding me? Absolutely. Jesus is coming soon. With that said, bless you.
