Scary Science: The Diabolical Manipulation of Truth

This transcript of a message from Pastor Daniel Joseph of Corner Fringe Ministries, argues that the global response to the COVID-19 pandemic mirrors the tactics used by totalitarian regimes. He draws explicit parallels between modern mandates, such as social distancing and mask-wearing, and the historical use of "scary science" by the Nazis to justify atrocities. Daniel suggests that scientific propaganda is currently being used to instill fear, isolate individuals, and prepare the public for a mandatory vaccination he labels a "medical messiah." Daniel highlights the perceived manipulation of data, specifically criticizing the accuracy of PCR testing and the severity of death rates reported by the WHO and CDC. Furthermore, he warns that neighborhood surveillance and student "whistleblowers" are modern versions of oppressive historical control methods. Ultimately, Daniel frames these events as a spiritual battle indicating that the world is entering the biblical end times.

Welcome, everyone. I'm Daniel Joseph, and you're "On The Corner Fringe." Thank you for joining me today. I want to take just a few moments of your time to give you a little food for thought. And I want to talk about something today, what I'd like to call "scary science."

Scary science in light of everything that we see happening right now. From the lockdowns, we have mass mandates; we have mandates stating that we need to keep six feet from each other. We have mandates telling people, "Well, you can't go back to church." We have mandates telling people that you can't sing to Jesus. We have the implementation of mass. I mean, we have all of these crazy things, these draconian, most extreme things that we have ever experienced in the history of the world in the sense of how we are responding to this pandemic.

And the question is, why? Why are we responding like this? And what we're being told is, in essence, "Well, it's the science." It's the science that tells us that if I don't wear my mask, I'm going to kill everyone around me. It's the science that says if I don't social distance, I'm going to spread, freely spread, the coronavirus. It's the science that says if I sing praises to Jesus, I'm going to kill everyone in the building. It's the science that says if you don't close your business and virtually at some point starve to death, you're going to kill everyone. See, it's the science that is telling us, and this is what I would call, to me, scary science—frightening science.

And of course, this will all continue, and this is the science telling this. This will all continue until what? Until the medical messiah comes. The medical messiah, not my messiah, but the medical messiah known as the COVID-19 vaccination. See, once the COVID-19 vaccination comes on the scene, then everyone's going to be saved. Then, you won't need to experience these draconian measures. You won't have to wear a mask. You won't have to worry about social distancing. Yes, you'll be able to go to your families for Thanksgiving. Oh, you'll be able to go back to church freely, and you'll be able to sing to Jesus. You'll be able to do all these amazing things once this comes. All of this is based on science.

I want to take another lesson from history and expound a little bit upon something I mentioned just briefly within the Four Horsemen series. Today's video is basically an addendum to that. We'll look at a few articles today, but the primary one I want to work from is from the European Molecular Biology Organization. And they ran a report almost 20 years ago. It's from October 2001. They ran a report named "In the Name of Science."

The subtext that they had put on there was the role of biologists in Nazi atrocities. "Lessons for Today's Scientists." And let me read to you what they said: "...at some point in history, prejudice found a faithful servant in science." Now you think about that statement: "Prejudice found a faithful servant in science." This already suggests that science has not always been used responsibly. No, science has been something that has been mutilated, manipulated, and twisted to achieve unthinkable and inhumane agendas. That's how science historically has been used. And this report does an amazing job of bringing this reality to the surface.

Now it goes on and says, "Scientific theories and arguments were used to support the inferiority of other races, thereby legitimizing crimes committed throughout history and all over the world." It's just so, you know, and I say this tongue-in-cheek, you know, that when evil comes on the scene, they love to legitimize themselves and justify their actions, and science is the perfect candidate to do that.

Continuing, "The emergence of eugenics as an 'applied science' culminated in the horrendous atrocities committed by the Nazis during the Third Reich." Now listen to this: "And the scientists who provided the scientific backing were respected university professors or researchers of the Kaiser Wilhelm Society (KWS), the predecessor of the Max Planck Society." (Emphasis added). Those were just prestigious scientific institutions, but they had, I mean, famous scientists, world-renowned scientists; a part of them, Albert Einstein, being one of them. Okay, obviously, before Hitler did what he did, Einstein got out before that, but it shows you what kind of scientific minds were part of this program. And these are the most respected minds, not just in Germany, but even in the world.

And so, what I love, what is conveyed here, is “the scientists who provided the scientific backing”; they were well respected. So do you understand when it comes to looking... I mean, we think today, and it angers us that Hitler could get away with what he did. But what you need to do is peel back and try to get into Germany in the 1940s, and even in the 30s, and understand what in the world happened. How did the Nazi regime get to the point where society was conditioned enough that they could carry out unthinkable atrocities against humanity, against these Jewish people? This is important that you peel this back and understand this. And the answer to that is science.

One of the primary ways they were able to do that is because you have all these, what you would call intellectual elites, respected men in their fields. And when they come out and tell you, “The Jews are a biological threat to humanity. They’re a biological threat to our health. If we allow them to continue along with these other deformed creatures, we’re all going to die. We’re not going to make it.” Through science, they instilled fear. Through fear, they gained control. Propaganda was a huge part of this.

Sending this out, letting people know, infiltrating all the academic communities, sending out propaganda, Nazi propaganda, and going all the way into elementary school. It’s absolutely diabolical. But it terrifies me that they did all this in the name of science. See, you need to be careful. Just because a scientist or medical physician comes out and says, “XYZ,” be careful. Be very careful because there may just be a diabolical agenda attached to it. It may have nothing to do with science but only be wearing the mask, the face of science, to carry out insidious schemes. Right?

Now, continuing, we read this: “Many of them remained in renowned positions even after 1945, influential enough to delay an unbiased historical confrontation.” How does that happen? I mean, it blows my mind that this is even possible. And for those of you who studied World War II, you know Operation Paperclip, which was a secret operation by America going in and taking German scientists and well-known physicians from the Nazi regime to utilize them in the war against communism. Of course, I mean, you know this historically, taking the spoils of war, which would include the bright minds of the nations. This goes way back thousands of years.

We can see this in the Bible. We can see this in what happened to Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. This is what happened to the prophet Daniel. He was a spoil of war, yet they used his bright mind and put him in positions of power. So, Operation Paperclip was such a deal, but what this is drawing upon, not to get off the beaten path here, is that they were in a renowned position. These scientists were so respected, and they were intellectuals, and they were so good in their fields that maybe some of these scientists, you know, and I say that tongue in cheek, should have actually seen a prison cell, if not the death penalty, depending on how involved they were regarding the atrocities. But a lot of that didn’t happen. And so, there’s a lot of hullabaloo about that even to this day.

Continuing, “Ernst Rüdin was another scientist instrumental in setting the framework for racial politics. In 1905 he co-founded the ‘Society for Racial Hygiene’ to promote eugenics, and by 1931 he was the Director of the Deutsche Forschungsanstalt \(DFA\)/KWI for Psychiatry in Munich, where his interests in the psychiatric aspects of population genetics strongly influenced the general orientation of the institute.”

See, you have scientists, very bright minds, rising amongst their peers, and they can become very influential. Even amongst others responsible, what I would call a responsible scientist, a responsible physician, a responsible biologist, or whatever field they're in. These responsible people would fear God, love humanity, and be in it to make the world a better place. But then you have others who are not in it to make the world a better place. No, they're in it to literally carry out the devil's agendas. Whether knowingly or unknowingly, willingly or unwillingly, this is what's happening.

Now, continuing, “The importance of racial hygiene”—now this is an actual quote from Dr. Rüdin himself. That's important to note here. The importance of racial hygiene has only become known to all intelligent Germans... In other words, if you don't believe what I'm saying, you're an imbecile. You're an idiot, German, if you don't accept what I'm saying. I mean, man, have we not heard this for generations, this kind of message? For example, the way evolutionists look at creationists—complete imbeciles. You're just a moron unless you believe my interpretation of the science; you're an imbecile. And it's just amazing how the wording is here. So, to all intelligent Germans through the political work of Adolph Hitler, now this blows my mind, and it was only through him that our more than thirty-year-old dream has become reality and racial hygiene principles have been translated into action,” Rüdin said.”

So here's the reality. I mean, long before Hitler even came on the scene, the concept of extermination, of ethnic cleansing, of depopulation was well on its way through the science community, through particular scientists. I certainly don't paint a broad brushstroke on all scientists; I'm not doing that. But this was already in the works. And by the time Hitler came on the scene, they had found a good vessel to carry out their insidious schemes, which Hitler was completely elated about, being filled with who knows how many demons.

Continuing, “It was scientific and medical methods, scientific and medical speech that were used in carrying out these crimes in the name of science.” Now, you just meditate on that statement because this is the crescendo of what we need to take away from this article. They're going out with scientific and medical methods using medical speech, and through that, carrying out the most insidious, unthinkable crimes. But at the time, many of the German citizens really didn't grasp what was happening to them. Many who did understand were ignored, of course, and the silence was deafening, unfortunately. Unfortunately.

I want to share this with you; it was interesting. A friend sent me a text; he found something in his neighborhood, and it was a flyer, so I'll put it up here for you. On the right-hand side, you'll notice that this is a COVID-19 flyer. And on this flyer, right now we have health people going out—health personnel, if you will—going out and posting these; they are going out literally into the neighborhoods. Now, if you followed the Four Horsemen, you know we talked a little bit about these contact tracers. Well, I'm here to tell you that before any bill is even passed, this is already happening. It's already happening.

You have these health personnel going out to neighborhoods, letting everyone know, in essence, they're the neighborhood watch, and the same thing happened in Nazi Germany. They had what are known as the "*Blockleiter*s" (block leaders), and their function was to serve as a conduit between the powers that be, their superiors, and the general public. Their job was to ensure propaganda spread. Their job was to prepare the general public to adopt the radical policies of the Nazi regime. In the process, they also spied. They documented, in great detail, literally every family and every home; this was their function. They went out to the neighborhoods. This is exactly what we're seeing today; we're seeing this beginning to happen.

So, when you think of totalitarianism and history, historically speaking, now, you know, the thrust and the focus for me is the rise of communism in this country. But understand something. The tactics and techniques that the Nazis employed were the very same type of techniques that the communists employed to rise to power—to gain power. It's interesting; there was a German philosopher at the end of World War II who wrote—her name was Hannah Ernst, I believe—and she wrote on how one of the things that the communist regime and the Hitlerian regime, the Nazis, did to ascend to power, one of the red flags, was social alienation. I'm not making this stuff up. They started infiltrating society to separate people. What we would call today is social distancing; I'm not kidding you.

You hear the talk all over this nation that, no, now families, whether you're in California or Michigan, I mean all this craziness that, you know what? For Thanksgiving, you better not have your families come out, or we're going to break it up. In the UK, the police—I didn't put the article up here, but there's an article that came out just this week—said that the police said if any families are going to be meeting, they will be physically removed. Police will enter the homes and remove any person that is not part of the immediate family. I mean, this is nuts; this is absolutely crazy, and yet this stuff is happening. And again, here's my argument: this is all happening in the name of science. It's all happening in the name of science, what I would call scary, scary satanic science.

Let me read this to you: Summit News, by Steve Watson, 9/21/20—Report: Covid "whistleblowers" Are Making Money From Tattling on Those Who Break Rules—Something the Nazis did, something Communists do. A Reuters report that describes as "whistleblowers" students reporting on their classmates for breaking COVID rules, also highlights that the authorities are paying them to walk around campuses and "enforce" social distancing measures and mask mandates. They are getting so hyperrestrictive and so militant about social distancing. You need to stop for a moment and go back to history because it's exactly what the Nazis did. It's exactly what the communists did.

"As some U.S. college students party, others blow the whistle," the report states, noting that some are even making 'undercover videos' of their fellow student disobeying the rules and handing the footage over to school authorities. ... The university has a form on its website where violations of the school's COVID-19 guidelines can be anonymously reported... So don't worry, you can be a secret snitch. Some schools like the University of Miami are actually paying students to enforce COVID-19 rules. And again, I'm telling you, this is all being done in the name of science. We're doing it because we're trying to save humanity—please save humanity.

I love what H.L. Mencken, an American journalist, said: "The urge to save humanity is almost always a false face for the urge to rule it." No kidding. Absolutely no kidding. And you already know where I'm at, people, regarding all of this stuff. I know what's behind it; I know what was behind the communist regime. It is Satanism, diabolical, the depth of Satan, and the evil that he is; it's manifested in that.

Hitler is an incredible example of a true manifestation of the purest form of evil, and it just shows you what the devil thinks of God's people, the Jewish people. He detests them, he hates them, and he loathes them. There's nothing greater on his agenda than to go out and slaughter them. So, you know, these are things we need to wake up to and understand. I want to be clear: if I haven't been yet, this is not a physical battle. This is not simply a psychological war in and of itself. This is a spiritual battle, and it requires soldiers and warriors who are not afraid, who are not intimidated, who will speak up, who will speak the truth, who will educate, and who will convict with the gospel and will turn these people back to, first of all, hope and liberty and freedom and joy and goodness and righteousness and truth. This has to be the heartbeat.

Look at this headline: NY TIMES: Up to 90% Who've Tested COVID Positive Wrongly Diagnosed! TRUTH: A Whole Lot Worse! \(Pt 2\), posted at 11:30 am on September 3, 2020, by Michael Thau.

"Quantitative PCR is an oxymoron." Nobel Prize-winning inventor of PCR, Kary Mullis on why it can't be used to test for viruses. Now, PCR, just so that you understand PCR, is the test they're using to test for COVID, whether you're COVID positive or not.

Listen to what this goes on to say: Though it was important enough to earn Mullis a Nobel Prize, most are unaware that PCR wasn't designed to test for viruses at all. Mullis invented it to synthesize genetic material for research purposes and, in fact was strongly opposed to the way it wound up being used to test for the HIV virus... Turns out during all 4 epidemics prior to COVID-19 since 2000, CDC & WHO were concerned about the high false-positive rates for PCR tests & issued guidelines to try and minimize them. But for C19, both somehow forgot all about PCR false-positive rates.

Now, that should be alarming when the very test that's being utilized, the PCR test, that's being utilized to test people whether or not they actually have COVID or not, was never designed for this function at any rate and has a known history, both to the World Health Organization and also the CDC, of its inaccurate readings regarding viruses. But hey, let's use these PCR tests and let's test everyone. See, are we really trying to know whether or not they have COVID, or are we trying to spike the numbers? But again, you know, this is science. So, you know what, everyone, sleep well and be comforted.

Listen to this: New WHO estimate puts coronavirus death rate at only 0.13%, by Art Moore, WND, October 5, 2020—If, indeed, 760 million have been infected at some point during the outbreak and the number of confirmed deaths is about 1 million, the infection fatality rate is only 0.13%. That's a little more than one-tenth of 1%, which the WHO says is the rate for the seasonal flu.

Oh, my goodness, so I guess based upon that we should shut the entire world down.

We should lock people and imprison them in their homes. We should prevent people from singing praises to Jesus. We should do all of these things in the name of science. I'm being facetious; forgive me.

Last month, the Centers for Disease Control issued new estimates that showed people under 50 years infected by COVID-19 have nearly a 100% survival rate. It broke down to a 99.997% survival rate for 0-19 years old; 99.98% for ages 20-49; 99.5% for 50-69; and 94.6% for those over 70. Those who died of coronavirus, according to the CDC, had an average of 2.6 comorbidities, meaning more than two chronic diseases along with COVID-19. Now, this is the most mind-blowing part. Overall, the CDC says, just 6% of the people counted as COVID-19 deaths, going back to the .13%, only 6% of that number died of COVID-19 alone. Try to wrap your head around that. Science—meet numbers; I mean, it's that simple.

And how this thing is continually being perpetuated can only be described as absolutely demonic. There is no other description, and that's why, I'm sorry, you can call me a nut, you can call me a conspiracy theorist, but I absolutely believe biblically we are at the end of the age; we are in the Book of Revelation, and things are starting to unfold, and nothing is going to make sense of this. And men's hearts are going to fail them from fear of what is coming. Those who do not have Jesus, who don't have Yeshua as LORD and Master, their hearts are going to fail. They won't make it through.

Let me share this with you: BACKFLIP: W.H.O. CONDEMNS CORONAVIRUS LOCKDOWNS, JUST 'DOUBLING' GLOBAL POVERTY, www.breitbart.com, Oct 11, 2020— Now think about this headline; this is crazy. You want to talk about pseudoscience and confusing science. One day the CDC comes out and says XYZ. The next day they come out and say ABC. One day you have WHO coming out and saying ABC; the next day they're coming out saying XYZ. I mean, you can't make this stuff up. It's so crazy.

Part of the reason, at least this is my perspective, is to take it with a grain of salt. Part of the reason I believe this is because there are responsible scientists and responsible medical physicians who are assessing this situation, looking at reality, and saying, "Wait a second." This is the reality of this situation, but they're not aware of the ultimate agenda. And so, it's always cleanup on aisle five. We have to go back and retract what we're going to do.

But then you get some rogue, responsible doctors coming out like this. Dr. Nabarro is saying the following: Dr. David Nabarro from the W.H.O. appealed to world leaders on Saturday, telling them to stop "using lockdowns as your primary control method" of the coronavirus. He claimed that the only thing lockdowns achieved was poverty—amen to that—with no mention of the potential lives saved. This is in direct contrast to W.H.O. chief Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus who as far back as April gave his full support to lockdowns, and even warned against lifting them too soon, as Breitbart News reported. Isn't that amazing?

And so, you have total confusion in the science community. But again, here's a point that you need to take away: You have over 6000 scientists right now who have come out and signed a petition to remove the lockdowns and end this insanity. But how much airplay are they getting on mainstream media? Zero. They are getting absolutely zero airplay because something's going on. That's what you need to see, and the something that's going on is not good; I can tell you that.

Listen to this: DC, as in Washington, DC, Bill B23-0171 Allowing Children 11 Years and Older to Be Vaccinated Without Parental Knowledge or Consent Advances, Medical Kidnap, by Dawn Richardson, The Vaccine Reaction—On Oct. 7, 2020, during a hastily scheduled virtual meeting, four District of Columbia Council members making up the Health Committee amended and unanimously passed a minor consent bill, B23-0171.3. The bill would not only permit children aged 11 years and older to give consent for doctors and other vaccine administrators to give them vaccines without their parents' knowledge or consent, but would also require insurance companies, vaccine administrators and schools to conceal from parents that the child has been vaccinated. Can't make that up.

On Oct. 20, 2020, the entire DC Council voted in favor of the bill 12:15 on the first reading in yet another virtual online meeting with no public testimony. It was announced that the second reading, which will be the final vote, will take place on Nov. 10, 2020. Coming very soon, November 10th, this is going to happen.

Now, this is getting nuts when they're literally coming in and saying the parents don't have rights over their children; children 11 years and older can just get vaccinated. What's so scary is this: the propaganda that's gone out has put such fear in people's hearts. I'm talking to grown adults who are scared of the shadow. If I come within six feet, they're freaking out. I know many families that are not allowed to go see their other family members because the other family was worried and said, "You're not coming over. We're in our house; we don't want anyone over. We don't want any chance of contracting this virus." We have grandmothers who aren't allowed to see their grandchildren. We have sons and daughters not being allowed to see their parents. I mean, the whole thing is insane, given what's going on right now.

But then you take that component, knowing fear has been successfully sown in every facet of society, and then you go to an 11, 12, 13, 14, or 15-year-old, even college-age. You have a doctor wearing a nice little doctor coat saying, "Man, you need to get the vaccination." What do you think the success rate is? What do you think that's going to be when they're talking to these people? I predict it will be darn near 100%. There'll be very few exceptions because there's so much fear, and the people are waiting for the medical messiah, the coronavirus vaccine, and when someone has a coat on, he's a doctor, a physician, and people trust that. They trust that counsel. This scares me.

See, we need to start awakening to this environment. And we need to start educating our children. We need to start educating our family members. We need to start educating each other. This stuff is becoming a reality, and no, we cannot be a part of this as believers. You do not want to be a part of this at all.

So, with that said, I'm just going to leave that here today. I had a lot more, but I'm not going to get into it. This is longer than I wanted it to be, so forgive me. But be blessed. Thank you for tuning in, and I look forward to seeing you soon. God bless you.

Scary Science: The Historical Blueprint of Social Control

Explores the parallels between historical manipulation of scientific authority for social control in totalitarian regimes and modern pandemic mandates, focusing on the use of fear and the erosion of individual rights.

THE HISTORICAL PRECEDENT (NAZI GERMANY)

LEGITIMATIZING ATROCITIES THROUGH SCIENCE

Nazi scientists used "racial hygiene" to justify crimes through respected academic institutions.

THE "BLOCKLEITER" SURVEILLANCE MODEL

Block leaders acted as neighborhood spies to spread propaganda and document family activities.

SOCIAL ALIENATION AS A TOOL

Totalitarian regimes used social distancing to infiltrate and separate the fabric of society.

MODERN "SCARY SCIENCE" (COVID-19 ERA)

THE 99.9% SURVIVAL RATE GAP

CDC REPORTED SURVIVAL RATES

CDC estimates show high survival rates for most age groups despite extreme lockdowns.

EROSION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

DC Bill B23-0171 allows vaccinating children age 11+ without parental knowledge or consent.

THE RISE OF "WHISTLEBLOWER" CULTURE

Universities and authorities are paying students to report peers for breaking social rules.
