"People Don't Change"

2 Kings 5:1-19

People don't change, but Jesus changes people.

The problems that people have been facing for centuries are the same problems that we face today. The details are different, absolutely, but the truth is that people don't change. Only Jesus changes people.

- What are some examples of issues, practically and spiritually, that people face today as well as the people who lived centuries ago?

Our church's mission is to:

- Reach the Stranded.
- Teach the Word.
- Unleash the Church.

How does Naaman's story in 2 Kings 5 reflect these three principles?

What does Leprosy usually represent in the Bible?

- How can you relate to Naaman physically and spiritually?

How much faith did the King of Syria need to have in order to send his commander and friend to the enemy for help?

Why do you think Naaman seemed so offended by the idea of washing in the Jordan river?

- Can you think of a time in your life where you were upset at God for doing something different than you thought He would/wanted him to do?

What is the significance of the two mule loads of earth that Naaman wanted to take back with him?

How can your life reflect the Teach, Reach and Unleash mission?
