

The Essence Of God's Compassion Has Taken You!

In every person God has put a well of compassion.

God saw your well of compassion.

He knew you when you were a little child.

He knew that whoever would let Him tap into that well of compassion, He could use that instrument (your soul, your will, your life) to meet the needs of humanity.

You know the deep humility that you sense in your own heart when you have compassion for the needs of others.

This is the power behind God's purpose for your entire existence and ministry.

Right now, ask God for His compassion!
