PROTECT YOUR PEAS, GASLIGHT TROLL
PASTOR JOEL BURROUGH

“Six days before the Passover celebration began, Jesus arrived in Bethany, the home of Lazarus – the man he had raised from the dead. A dinner was prepared in Jesus’ honor. Martha served, and Lazarus was among those who ate with him. Then Mary took a twelve-ounce jar of expensive perfume made from essence of nard, and she anointed Jesus’ feet with it, wiping his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance.” John 12:1-3 (NLT)

“But Judas Iscariot, the disciple who would soon betray him, said, ‘That perfume was worth a year’s wages. It should have been sold and the money given to the poor.’ Not that he cared for the poor – he was a thief, and since he was in charge of the disciples’ money, he often stole some for himself.

Jesus replied, ‘Leave her alone. She did this in preparation for my burial. You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me.’”
John 12:4-8 (NLT)

“For there will never cease to be poor in the land. Therefore I command you, ‘You shall open wide your hand to your brother, to the needy and to the poor, in your land.’” Deuteronomy 15:11 (ESV)

“But there will be no poor among you; for the Lord will bless you in the land that the Lord your God is giving you for an inheritance to possess-if only you will strictly obey the voice of the Lord your God, being careful to do all this commandment that I command you today.”
Deuteronomy 15:4-5 (ESV)
