

Dream 1/5/26 at 4:57 a.m.

This morning, I dreamt that [A PERSON FROM OUR FAMILY'S PAST] came to my house. It wasn't the home we are living in now. It was a house I didn't recognize. She arrived at the same time we arrived home from a trip. I was grabbing one of the kid's suitcases and taking it to their room when she appeared. She was standing in my foyer, and there were six kids with her. They weren't her children. They were kids I didn't recognize. I came up to this person, and we engaged in a confrontive conversation. I didn't agree with anything she had to say, and I countered all of her arguments. I realized she wasn't there to receive anything I had to say. She only cared about what she had to say. I finally pressed my forefinger to her lips as if to say, "Shut up!" Then the dream ended.

I believe this dream represents the position we will have to take this year regarding lying, seducing, and deceiving spirits. This person represents the spirit we already recognize. She represents past battles we have won. However, the children represent her offspring. They represent spirits we haven't encountered yet. As the old saying goes, "New levels brings new devils."

We are going to a new level this year. It is actually a realm or dimension we've never been to. Familiar spirits will try to come and argue us out of that position. They will try to drag us back to that familiar place. But we must point our finger at it and use our authority to silence their voice. We must say, "Shut up! to the old familiar place." We must also be prepared for new attacks and new demons we've never encountered. We must position our mindset and our posture in such a way that we are going to live in this new place (realm), no matter what Satan throws against us.

We crossed the threshold last year, which means we now have access to the new place. However, the enemy will convince us that the new place is not real. That the old, familiar place is better. That the old, familiar place is more secure. More stable. These are lies. We must not listen to them. We must not believe them. We must learn to abide and remain in the unfamiliar until it becomes familiar.

Children represent the future or next generation. The place we are entering this year will affect the next generation. Our decisions this year will have a generational impact, whether for good or for bad. Children represent increase, prosperity, joy, spiritual inheritance, fruit, and blessings. God's intent is to bless us in the new place. To increase us in the new place. This is a year of inheritance. A year to possess the promise. The children in the dream also represent spiritual sons and daughters we've never met. God will be bringing new people to us to father and mother in the new place. We must be ready to work with them. We can't turn them away because they are unfamiliar to us, and because we haven't walked with them. We must be open. However, we must also shut down any familiar spirits they may be carrying from our past and refuse to tolerate them. The Lord is bringing them to us so they can receive freedom and healing, not so they can drag us back into our past.

The forefinger represents the prophet who is full of discernment and wisdom to point the way; gives godly direction, and instruction, guides through encouragement and conviction; interprets dreams and visions; and speaks destiny into people's lives. We must not allow false voices to point the way for us this year. We must not allow people's opinions and even good ideas to guide us. We must be led by discernment, wisdom, and instruction from the Lord. We must guard against false voices speaking into our lives and into our church family. This is the year when the prophetic voice is very important because this is a hinge point year. This is an inspection year. God is inspecting us to see if He can build the next thing He wants to build. Therefore, it is important to guard what we listen to.

Lips represent the anointed words of God, testimony; Prophet, God's spokesman, offering, testify; a kiss; expression; affection; articulate; statements; allurements; testify; detest wickedness, unclean; honey-filled seductions; a lover. We must cut off lying lips this year. We must silence lies by speaking truth. This is the year to go deep in the Word of God and really understand what we believe. This is a year to challenge false beliefs, false ideas, and doctrines of demons. There's coming a deeper expression of truth in our house this year. The next realm requires that we go into a deeper level of truth. We must seek truth in a deeper way this way.

A suitcase indicates that you are cool, calm, and collected; a together person who keeps your feelings, thoughts, and behavior in check. You are a planned person who is prepared in season and out of season. A suitcase can represent moving on from a situation; carrying essentials or a need to get rid of excess baggage. We need to keep our emotions in check this year. We can't be governed by emotion, especially the emotion of fear. We can't make our decisions based on fear or lack of finances. We need to let go of the old baggage this year, and travel light. We need to bring our feelings, thoughts, and behavior into check. We need to rest in God and let His peace be the umpire of our heart. Things are never as bad as they appear. We need to stop looking at appearances. Fear is false evidence appearing real. We need to stop believing the false evidence. The truth is that God is for us, God is with us, and with Him all things are possible.

The Lord spoke this word to me during worship at KingdomLife on Sunday, December 28, 2025:

'26 will be unusual and unconventional. It will not be a normal year. Don't expect normal things. Expect the supernatural. Expect shifts. Expect signs, wonders, and miracles. Expect unusual breakthroughs. Expect things to come from a different direction. Expect fresh downloads. Expect fresh strategy. Expect fresh plans. Stop building the old thing. Start building the new thing. Release the stress of building to Me. Expect less confusion. Expect more clarity. Expect more focus. Expect adjustment of sight. For, I am making adjustments. I am making corrections. I am making provision. My provision is for the new thing, not the old thing. Pursue the new and see the provision flow. Release your expectation to Me. It is time to look forward. Stop looking to that which is behind you. Lock eyes with the one you love. You can trust me. You can depend on Me. I won't let you down. I won't fail you. Make Me your firm foundation. Stake your claim in Me. '26 is about thinking differently. It's about a new way of thinking. It's about renewing the mind. You can't take the old wineskin with you. The old way of thinking doesn't fit the new. '26 is about being fit for My use. It's about being properly adjusted. Properly aligned. Properly fit. For I am bringing a new order over the earth. Step into the new way. Step into the new flow. The flow from Heaven. '26 is about Heaven's flow. '26 is about navigating My ways. '26 is about learning My ways. Knowing My ways. My people must learn My ways. It's not enough to just know My promises. You must know My ways. For knowing My ways is the key to becoming one with Me . . . [REMAINING PORTION REDACTED]

It is significant in my dream that this person was standing in my foyer. She never got past the entrance. I did not let her into the rest of my house. A foyer represents a welcoming place of entry for guests and friends. We need to guard against what we let into our house this year. When the enemy comes, we need to resist him at the gates. We do not need to welcome him. We do not need to let him get past the entrance to our house. We need to tell him immediately to stop and leave. We do not need to let him take up residence or go any further in our lives.

Six is a significant number this year. We are in the Hebraic year 5786, the vav. Six represents man. It is the part we, as man, play in God's story. Our decisions this year determine whether our future will be blessed or cursed. Whether our children will be blessed or cursed. Whether generational curses will break or continue. Whether generational blessings will begin or end. Six can also represent the flesh. God is determining if we are building in the flesh or by the spirit. Are we birthing Ishmael or Isaac? God is examining us. Measuring us. Testing us. He is seeing what we are going to vav to. Are we going to rely (vav) upon our flesh or upon Him? God is leading us into a deeper place of trust this year, but will we go or will our flesh resist? Will we choose the familiar or the uncomfortable? It's really important we make the right decision this year because our future hinges upon it. We cannot accomplish what God has called us to do with just us four and no more. The only way to fulfillment is through multiplication and expansion. However, God can't bless the flesh. He can only bless what He is placing His Spirit upon. Will we vav with the Spirit this year, or vav with the old, familiar, past cycle? It is not His decision. The decision is ours. He is giving us the choice. We can determine what our children look like moving forward. We can attract more people like the person in the dream, or we can attract high-caliber spiritual sons and daughters who are called to lead and reform. What we vav to this year will determine what we attract, and what we attract this year will set the course for our legacy. God is allowing the narrative to change this year. The narrative of heaven is already written, but He is allowing the narrative on earth to change. We can change our narrative this year if we change our mindset. Or we can remain in the old, familiar mindset, and stay where we've been.

In the dream, I countered all of this person's arguments, but she wouldn't listen. The Lord is saying to stop wasting our breath on people who won't listen. People who won't change. Our job is not to change people. Our job is not to keep confronting people like this person who won't change. God is saying, "Get rid of the time wasters this year. Stop letting people waste your time." Time is our most valuable resource. It is precious. We must guard it. We must stay in charge of it. We must not let time get away from us. We must not let people steal our time and our energy. They aren't worth it.

In the dream, I didn't come into agreement with anything this person had to say. This year, it is so important what we come into agreement with. It is also important what we don't come into agreement with. We must agree with the Lord that He is taking us to the new place and we won't come off of it. Let our yes be yes! Come into full agreement with Him. We are going to keep walking until we come fully into the new realm of authority. We don't agree with anything contrary to that, even from well-meaning (or not so well-meaning) people.

Lastly, a house represents oneself; your personality; character or reputation; ministry or church. We must guard the house this year from anything that is contrary to God's plan and God's will. We must guard the equipping and mantle He has entrusted us with. We must not allow anything to water it down. To dilute it. To compromise it. God wants us to fully function in our mantle this year. He doesn't want half-function, or three-quarters function. He wants full function of what He has called and equipped us to do. This year, we will be fully functional. The dysfunction goes out the window. We are not dysfunctional people. In Christ, we are fully functional. Completely effective. Nothing broken. Nothing missing. Fully functioning.
