

THE Storyteller

THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Luke 10:25-37

July 7, 2024

Loving your neighbor is a reflection of _____ and
_____.

Loving your neighbor means
_____ over _____.

Loving your neighbor means
_____ over _____.

Loving your neighbor means
_____ over _____.

Reflection Questions

How can you embody Christ's mercy and grace in your interactions with others? Can you think of a recent situation where you succeeded or struggled with this?

Reflect on a time when you felt contempt towards someone. How might you have approached the situation differently with a mindset of compassion?

Identify a scenario in your community or daily life where you witnessed or were tempted to be indifferent. What specific actions can you take to move from indifference to active love?

Are there areas in your life where you focus more on religious rituals than on genuine acts of love and righteousness? How can you shift your focus to ensure your faith is reflected in your actions?

Consider the people you encounter regularly. What are three practical ways you can demonstrate love and compassion towards them in the coming week?