Reflection Questions

When has God called you to do something that was really difficult? How did things work out?

If you have ever demonstrated your faithfulness to God when it was really hard, in what ways did you experience God's presence with you?

Are the words, "God, I can't," a valid response to God's calling or conviction? Why or why not?

Have you ever had to choose between being faithful to God and being faithful to someone you love? If so, who? What's your relationship like with them now?

Has fear or a desire for self-preservation ever kept you from being faithful to God? When is fear healthy and when does it become an obstacle to obedience?
