REFLECTION QUESTIONS

What are some ways our culture tries to shape the way we think, act, or identify ourselves? Which of these pressures do you feel most strongly?

Daniel stood firm in his faith while still showing respect to others. How can we do the same in our workplaces, schools, or communities? Why is this important for us to do as Christians?

When have you had to say “no” to something normal or popular in our culture in order to stay faithful to God? What did you learn from that experience?

What qualities do you think made Daniel and his friends stand out in a positive way to those around them? How might we reflect those qualities to others?

If God honors faithfulness, what is one area of your life where you want to take a small but clear step of obedience this week?
