REFLECTION QUESTIONS

When have you felt pressure to “fit in” at the expense of your faith? How did you respond?

Why do you think standing apart for God often provokes criticism or hostility from others?

What are some everyday “idols” people are tempted to bow to in our culture? How do they compete with loyalty to God?

How can remembering God’s presence give us courage when obedience feels costly?

Who has been an example to you of staying faithful to God in the face of opposition, and what can you learn from their example? (You cannot use people from the Bible.)
