home? How does God's promise of a new paradise challenge that mindset?

When God feels distant to you, what usually causes that feeling? How does the promise of His perfect presence give you hope?

What hardships are testing your faith right now? How can the certainty of God's coming kingdom help you endure them?

In what areas of life do you need to live more like heaven is your home? What would practical obedience look like this week?

What does this passage teach you about who will inherit God's kingdom? How should that shape your faith in Christ and your witness to others?

Where are you most tempted to treat this world like your home? How does God's promise of a new paradise challenge that mindset?
