Reflection Questions

As you look back on your life, how many of the trials you faced were because of a wrong/sinful decision?

Does a parent who doesn't discipline their child(ren) really love them? Why or why not?

Why should parents discipline their children? Why should God discipline us?

When we're in trouble, to whom or what do we typically turn? Where is God on that list?

If we want God's help, what does He require? What qualifies us to call on God?
