Reflection Questions

What does our culture say about the reason for our existence? How does that compare to what the Bible says?

Why should we listen to God? Why should we follow His commandments/instruction?

Contrast the life of a person who doesn't follow God's commandments with one who does. How are they different? How are they similar? Who is happier?

Why do people put off faith in Jesus? What would make them not want to start living for Him immediately?
