Matthew 20:1-16
August 4th, 2024

God is _____ and _____
with His _____.

God's _____ to _____ never _____.

Those who _____ are _____ equally.

We should _____ God's _____ rather than _____ about it.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Why doesn't God give up on us? Why does He continue to love us and pursue us?

What is the relationship between works and grace in regard to salvation?

What are the things that God promises us in response to faith? What does He NOT promise us?

What are the dangers of comparing ourselves to others? How can Christians struggle with comparison?

If God was completely just and never merciful, what would happen to us all? What would happen if He was completely merciful without being just?
