Christian is not just a _____ to be _____, but a _____
to be _____.

Physical _____ can lead to spiritual
_____.

Faith that is _____ is _____ to
_____.

Fight to be _____, but trust that the _____ has already been _____.

Reflection Questions

Has there ever been a time in your life when “Christian” was just a label you wore? Explain.

Roughly 63% of people in the US claim to be Christian. Do you believe this? Why (not)?

How can our physical and material circumstances affect our faith? When might it help and when might it hinder?

What are some ways that we live by faith (trust) in God? What happens if we don’t do anything?

What does it look like to fight the good fight of the faith? (1 Tim. 6:12) Can we win this fight on our own?
