Reflection Questions

What does the Preacher say about the state of the righteous and the wicked in verse 1? How does this relate to the concept of “time and chance” mentioned in the same verse?

In verses 7-9, the Preacher encourages his readers to enjoy life and make the most of their time on earth. How does this advice fit with the overall tone of Ecclesiastes, which often emphasizes the vanity and futility of our pursuits?

How does this passage challenge our assumptions about the nature of life and death? How can we find hope and purpose in a world that often seems arbitrary and fleeting?

How might our understanding of the hope we have in Christ impact how we interpret and apply this passage to our lives?
