

GENESIS 1:26-31

PASTOR JOSH ROLLINS

MAY 31, 2026

GENESIS 1:26-31

PASTOR JOSH ROLLINS

MAY 31, 2026

THE PREMISE

The _____ decides the _____.

THE PREMISE

The _____ decides the _____.

THE MOMENT

The _____ around _____ has become the most _____ and _____ of our time.

THE MOMENT

The _____ around _____ has become the most _____ and _____ of our time.

THE AUTHORITY

What God _____ God _____.

THE AUTHORITY

What God _____ God _____.

THE TEXT

God's design is in _____.
God's design is _____ and _____.
God's design has _____ and _____.
God's design is _____.

THE TEXT

God's design is in _____.
God's design is _____ and _____.
God's design has _____ and _____.
God's design is _____.

HOW DO WE RESPOND?

Be _____
Stand _____ in the _____
Be _____
Be _____
Do _____ in _____

HOW DO WE RESPOND?

Be _____
Stand _____ in the _____
Be _____
Be _____
Do _____ in _____

additional notes:

additional notes:

Why do you think the conversation around gender and identity has become so personal and emotionally charged in our culture today?

According to Genesis 1:26–31, what does God’s design reveal about: humanity, identity, the body, and what it means to be male and female?

What does it practically look like to “be alert” and “stand firm in the faith” in today’s culture without becoming fearful or angry?

Where are you most tempted to compromise, stay silent, or avoid difficult conversations about truth because of fear of people’s reactions?

How can Christians speak clearly about God’s design while still doing “everything in love” toward people who are struggling, confused, or disagree with us?

How does the gospel restore our ability to delight in what God calls “very good”?

Why do you think the conversation around gender and identity has become so personal and emotionally charged in our culture today?

According to Genesis 1:26–31, what does God’s design reveal about: humanity, identity, the body, and what it means to be male and female?

What does it practically look like to “be alert” and “stand firm in the faith” in today’s culture without becoming fearful or angry?

Where are you most tempted to compromise, stay silent, or avoid difficult conversations about truth because of fear of people’s reactions?

How can Christians speak clearly about God’s design while still doing “everything in love” toward people who are struggling, confused, or disagree with us?

How does the gospel restore our ability to delight in what God calls “very good”?