

FAMILY

matters

THE HUSBAND

Ephesians 5:25-31

April 21, 2024

_____ must love their _____ as _____ loves _____.

Christ's love is a _____ love. (v. 25)

Christ's love is a
_____ love. (vs. 26-27)

Christ's love is a
_____ love. (vs. 28-31)

Reflection Questions

How does understanding Christ's love for the church redefine our understanding of love within marriage?

Reflect on Ephesians 5:25. How does the comparison between a husband's love and Christ's love challenge our culture's perceptions of marriage?

Consider examples from Christ's life where He demonstrated sacrificial love. How can these examples inspire us to love sacrificially in our own relationships?

How does Christ's love empower us to grow and become more like Him? How can husbands and wives support each other's spiritual growth?

How does Christ's selfless love challenge our natural inclination towards self-centeredness in relationships?