Reflection Questions

Why is it so easy to become spiritually apathetic?
What might draw our attention away from God?

If someone asked you, “Why does God let bad things happen,” how would you respond? How can we respond when we face hardships in life?

How is our faith in God expressed? How is it put into action? How might He know how much we love Him?

What sort of obstacles might lie between you and the Lord? What might be keeping you from following Him or from serving Him more faithfully?

What does Jesus promise to do if we remove those obstacles?
