WORD MADE FLESH | Discussion Guide

Where have you noticed yourself fashioning a version of God that isn't like Jesus? What assumptions, fears, or past experiences may have shaped that false image?

As you consider the life of Jesus, what do you see about how God truly speaks and acts? Which stories or teachings of Christ most clearly correct or reshape your view of God?

Where do you still find yourself searching for meaning, transcendence, or spiritual clarity outside of Jesus?
What would it look like to let His revelation be enough?

What does it mean to you that God has always seen you—long before you ever looked for Him? How does Jesus' revelation of the Father invite you back into relationship with Him?

What is one practical step you can take this week to align your view of God more closely with the Jesus revealed in Scripture? (Be specific—a habit, Scripture reading plan, conversation, prayer practice, etc.)
