

PASTOR JOSH ROLLINS

OCTOBER 18, 2026

THE TENSION

We know how to _____.

We don't always know how to _____.

THE QUESTION

What can we _____ when so much is _____?

THE TRUTH

Our _____ may _____,
but God _____ with us.

LOOK BACK

Our greatest reason for _____ isn't our shared
_____. It's our shared _____.

LOOK UP

Our _____ isn't in what we _____,
but in what God _____.

LOOK FORWARD

God isn't just _____ with what's happening
_____. He's at _____ us.

HOW DO WE RESPOND?

Look back _____.

Look up _____.

Look forward _____.

PASTOR JOSH ROLLINS

OCTOBER 18, 2026

THE TENSION

We know how to _____.

We don't always know how to _____.

THE QUESTION

What can we _____ when so much is _____?

THE TRUTH

Our _____ may _____,
but God _____ with us.

LOOK BACK

Our greatest reason for _____ isn't our shared
_____. It's our shared _____.

LOOK UP

Our _____ isn't in what we _____,
but in what God _____.

LOOK FORWARD

God isn't just _____ with what's happening
_____. He's at _____ us.

HOW DO WE RESPOND?

Look back _____.

Look up _____.

Look forward _____.

REFLECT THIS WEEK

What's the difference between being thankful for what God has done and becoming attached to how He's done it? How can we recognize when our love for something good has become resistance to change?

Paul's confidence rests in God's promise to complete His work, not in knowing what will happen next. Where are you currently looking for security in circumstances, people, or plans rather than in God's promises? What would trusting God look like if the outcome you hoped for never happened?

Paul's affection for the Philippians is rooted in their shared experience of God's grace. How should the gospel shape the way we respond when we disagree with other Christians? What's the difference between pursuing truth in love and simply trying to prove we're right?

Paul prays for love that grows in knowledge and discernment so believers can recognize what is excellent. What are some good things in our lives or churches that can distract us from what matters most? How might God be calling you to grow spiritually rather than simply remain busy?

Twice, Paul points toward the day of Christ Jesus. How would our priorities, relationships, and responses to change look different if we genuinely lived with Christ's return in view? What needs to change in your life today in light of the future Jesus has promised?

REFLECT THIS WEEK

What's the difference between being thankful for what God has done and becoming attached to how He's done it? How can we recognize when our love for something good has become resistance to change?

Paul's confidence rests in God's promise to complete His work, not in knowing what will happen next. Where are you currently looking for security in circumstances, people, or plans rather than in God's promises? What would trusting God look like if the outcome you hoped for never happened?

Paul's affection for the Philippians is rooted in their shared experience of God's grace. How should the gospel shape the way we respond when we disagree with other Christians? What's the difference between pursuing truth in love and simply trying to prove we're right?

Paul prays for love that grows in knowledge and discernment so believers can recognize what is excellent. What are some good things in our lives or churches that can distract us from what matters most? How might God be calling you to grow spiritually rather than simply remain busy?

Twice, Paul points toward the day of Christ Jesus. How would our priorities, relationships, and responses to change look different if we genuinely lived with Christ's return in view? What needs to change in your life today in light of the future Jesus has promised?