

PARADISE TO PROMISE

Provision

1 Peter 2:21-25

Tim Wilmetti

March 29th, 2026

Big Idea: _____ is only possible because
Jesus paid our _____.

He had no _____, yet He _____ in our
_____. (v. 22)

He _____ in _____ to _____
our salvation. (v. 23)

He was _____ so we could be made
_____. (v. 24)

He brings us _____ so we will _____ to our
_____. (v. 25)

PARADISE TO PROMISE

Provision

1 Peter 2:21-25

Tim Wilmetti

March 29th, 2026

Big Idea: _____ is only possible because
Jesus paid our _____.

He had no _____, yet He _____ in our
_____. (v. 22)

He _____ in _____ to _____
our salvation. (v. 23)

He was _____ so we could be made
_____. (v. 24)

He brings us _____ so we will _____ to our
_____. (v. 25)

PARADISE TO PROMISE | Discussion Guide

Why is it essential that Jesus was completely innocent in order to save guilty people? How does that deepen your confidence in what He accomplished for you?

What does Christ's response to mistreatment teach you about trusting God when life feels unfair? Where are you most tempted to defend yourself instead of entrusting yourself to the Lord?

In what ways have you seen sin damage a person's heart, relationships, or sense of peace? How does the cross show that God deals not only with our guilt, but with our brokenness?

What does it mean for a person to be brought back to God rather than merely forgiven by God? How does that challenge shallow ideas of salvation?

What area of your life is hardest to place under Christ's loving authority right now? What would it look like this week to follow Him there with real obedience?

WANT TO DISCUSS THIS MESSAGE WITH OTHERS?
Join a Life Group – pataskalagrace.org/life-groups

PARADISE TO PROMISE | Discussion Guide

Why is it essential that Jesus was completely innocent in order to save guilty people? How does that deepen your confidence in what He accomplished for you?

What does Christ's response to mistreatment teach you about trusting God when life feels unfair? Where are you most tempted to defend yourself instead of entrusting yourself to the Lord?

In what ways have you seen sin damage a person's heart, relationships, or sense of peace? How does the cross show that God deals not only with our guilt, but with our brokenness?

What does it mean for a person to be brought back to God rather than merely forgiven by God? How does that challenge shallow ideas of salvation?

What area of your life is hardest to place under Christ's loving authority right now? What would it look like this week to follow Him there with real obedience?

WANT TO DISCUSS THIS MESSAGE WITH OTHERS?
Join a Life Group – pataskalagrace.org/life-groups