Reflection Questions

Who's job is it to decide whether someone is really a Christian or not? What does that mean for us?

How do we know the difference between good and bad fruit?

Why are false prophets or teachers so dangerous? What are some ways that we can recognize them? (Beyond just this passage.)

How do we know what God's will is for us?

What happens to the trees that do not bear good fruit? What about the workers of lawlessness?
